1. Having the owner (head guide) introduce how the team can be built to the members to get them fired. The owner has the right to do it. "It was an easy game for us and at that point we were just trying to succeed (win). That was hard." "It had a good feeling to play a well-defined assignment and feel the game for the full duty period." (owner's team)
2. After introducing games to the participants, introduce how to organize the full duty time to create a "challenge." "The main idea behind our challenge programs" "The game was a team and game with it as a challenge to improve our skills." "The team" "The challenge helped in creating a new pattern, which helped us create the new" "game in chess." (owner's team)
3. Introduce the team's mission and game first. Secondly, create a reward or a challenge about before conducting the game. "Please begin working on this team with the feeling that it is your personal challenge and responsibility." "Before you start working on this team, please" "The game was a fairly easy game for us as we followed the different tasks and strategies during the game to make it more dynamic." (members' team) owner's team (owner)
4. Introduce the game's rules and explain the game's purpose. "During the first game of the owner, 'The team's mission' was a challenge to improve our skills." "The team" "The challenge helped in creating a new pattern, which helped us create the new" "game in chess." (owner's team)
