Tschudy, 2014 New Glarus was founded in 1845 by impoverished citizens of Glarus Switzerland Much of Europe was in the grips of a severe depression food was in short supply and jobs were equally scarce In response to this crisis the Swiss government formed the Swiss Emigration Society The society offered passage to America for anyone who wanted to leave Switzerland On April 16 1845 a ship took 193 Swiss to the United States Four months later on August 16 these pioneers arrived in what would become New Glarus The founding of this community might be one of the finest examples of the best of socialism Each settler received 20 acres of land drawn through a lottery land could not be exchanged for something better The oxen teams needed to work the land were communally owned The settlers looked out for the welfare of all providing schooling food shelter and health care The Report: Dubai 2015 Oxford Business Group, 2011-01-12 Already a regional and global centre for business and finance Dubai's reputation has been bolstered by the MSCI's decision to upgrade the UAE from frontier to emerging market status in 2014 while the emirate's successful Expo 2020 bid is expected to generate myriad opportunities for private investors across a range of sectors Construction is thriving once again driven in large part by strong retail sector growth with various projects including plans for the world's largest mall indicating that the sector will maintain its position as the emirate's biggest GDP contributor moving forward The transport and logistics framework is set for major expansion in the coming years as well furthering cementing the emirate's status as a leading transport and logistics hub not just regionally but globally too The continued development of Dubai's retail and hospitality offerings alongside the upgrades to its airports should help to ensure robust growth in visitor numbers from both the region and further afield Building the City of Spectacle Costas Spirou, Dennis R. Judd, 2016-10-27 By the time he left office on May 16 2011 Mayor Richard M Daley had served six terms and more than twenty two years at the helm of Chicago's City Hall making him the longest serving mayor in the city's history Richard M Daley was the son of the legendary machine boss Mayor Richard J Daley who had presided over the city during the post World War II urban crisis Richard M Daley led a period of economic restructuring after that difficult era by building a vibrant tourist economy Costas Spirou and Dennis R Judd focus on Richard M Daley's role in transforming Chicago's economy and urban culture The construction of the city of spectacle required that Daley deploy leadership and vision to remake Chicago's image and physical infrastructure He gained the resources and political power necessary for supporting an aggressive program of construction that focused on signature projects along the city's lakefront including especially Millennium Park Navy Pier the Museum Campus Northerly Island Soldier Field and two major expansions of McCormick Place the city's convention center During this period Daley also presided over major residential construction in the Loop and in the surrounding neighborhoods devoted millions of dollars to beautification efforts across the city and increased the number of summer festivals and events across Grant Park As a result of all these initiatives the number of tourists visiting Chicago skyrocketed during the Daley years Daley has been harshly criticized in some quarters for building a tourist oriented economy and infrastructure at the expense of other priorities Daley left his successor Rahm Emanuel with serious issues involving a long standing pattern of police malfeasance underfunded and uneven schools inadequate housing opportunities and intractable budgetary crises Nevertheless Spirou and Judd conclude because Daley helped transform Chicago into a leading global city with an exceptional urban culture he also left a positive imprint on the city that will endure for decades to come

The Report: Qatar 2015 Oxford Business Group,2015-04-22 Qatar's sizable oil and natural gas reserves have underpinned its rapid economic growth over the past two decades Home to the world's largest non associated gas field the country is the world's fourth largest producer of dry natural gas and the largest producer of liquefied natural gas with hydrocarbons revenues forming the bulk of national income as a result Although the drop in global energy prices has impacted export revenues rigorous economic diversification drives in recent years have paid dividends and in 2015 non hydrocarbons growth reached 7.7% compared to a 0.1% contraction for hydrocarbons growth during the same period The country's financial sector has continued to evolve Islamic banking in particular has witnessed significant progress Meanwhile as the country gears up to host several important sporting events in the coming years most notably the 2022 FIFA World Cup numerous big ticket infrastructure builds continue to expand the construction sector
