Resources in Education ,1999-04 Research in Education ,1972 The Journal of Economic Education ,1986
Calendar Victoria University College (Wellington, N.Z.),1920 The Classroom Teacher Milo Burdette Hillegas,Thomas Henry Briggs,1929 The New Zealand University Calendar University of New Zealand,1918 Selected Readings in Mineral Economics F.J. Anderson,2013-10-22

Selected Readings in Mineral Economics reviews the economic principles of mineral investment activities and mining decisions Topics range from mineral reserves and exploration to the economics of mineral projects taxation issues and marketing and finance This text is comprised of 27 chapters After explaining the distinction between resources and reserves this book proposes a concept of mineral reserves The chapters that follow explore the conversion of resources into reserves through the exploration process while focusing on the flow from resources to reserves and metal production based on the concept of the monitoring curve along with the process of depletion and reserves replacement The next section illustrates the range of issues associated with rational project evaluation in the minerals sector considering the discounted cash flow techniques and option pricing as an approach to mine valuation The effects of Canada s tax system on the mineral supply process are then examined together with international mineral markets and finance This text concludes with a chapter that analyzes financing methods for large scale mining projects including innovative methods of debt finance involving risk sharing This book will be of interest to those working in the mining and metallurgical industries State and Federal Marketing Activities and Other Economic Work, March 1921-June 21, 1939 United States. Bureau of Agricultural Economics,1923 Restoring Opportunity Greg J. Duncan,Richard J. Murnane,2014-01-01

In this landmark volume Greg J Duncan and Richard J Murnane lay out a meticulously researched case showing how in a time of spiraling inequality strategically targeted interventions and supports can help schools significantly improve the life chances of low income children The authors offer a brilliant synthesis of recent research on inequality and its effects on families children and schools They describe the interplay of social and economic factors that has made it increasingly hard for schools to counteract the effects of inequality and that has created a widening wedge between low and high income students Restoring Opportunity provides detailed portraits of proven initiatives that are transforming the lives of low income children from prekindergarten through high school All of these programs are research tested and have demonstrated sustained effectiveness over time and at significant scale Together they offer a powerful vision of what good instruction in effective schools can look like The authors conclude by outlining the elements of a new agenda for education reform Restoring Opportunity is a crowning contribution from these two leading economists in the field of education and a passionate call to action on behalf of the young people on whom our nation s future depends Copublished with the Russell Sage Foundation Behavioral Science & Policy: Volume 2, Issue 1 Craig Fox,Sim B. Sitkin,2016-11-22

The success of nearly all public and private sector policies hinges on the behavior of individuals groups and organizations Today such behaviors are better understood than ever thanks to a growing body of practical behavioral science research. However, policymakers often are unaware of behavioral science findings that may help them craft and execute more effective and efficient policies. The pages of this new journal will become a meeting ground, a place where scientists and non-scientists can encounter clearly described behavioral research that can be put into action. By design, the scope of BSP is broad, with topics spanning health care, financial decisionmaking, energy, and the environment, education, and culture, justice, and ethics, and workplace practices. Contributions will be made by researchers with expertise in psychology, sociology, law, behavioral economics, organization science, decision science, and marketing. The journal is a key offering of the Behavioral Science Policy Association in partnership with the Brookings Institution. The mission of BSPA is to foster dialog between social scientists, policymakers, and other practitioners in order to promote the application of rigorous empirical behavioral science in ways that serve the public interest. BSPA does not advance a particular agenda or political perspective. The first issue's contents follow:
