Rhythms of Revolt: European Traditions and Memories of Social

Conflict in Oral Culture Éva Guillorel, David Hopkin, William G. Pooley, 2017-10-23 The culture of insurgents in early modern Europe was primarily an oral one memories of social conflicts in the communities affected were passed on through oral forms such as songs and legends This popular history continued to influence political choices and actions through and after the early modern period The chapters in this book examine numerous examples from across Europe of how memories of revolt were perpetuated in oral cultures and they analyse how traditions were used From the German Peasants War of 1525 to the counter revolutionary guerrillas of the 1790s oral traditions can offer radically different interpretations of familiar events This is a history from below and a history from song which challenges existing historiographies of early modern revolts

Bringing History to Life Marc-André Éthier, David Lefrançois, 2025-01-21 History has never been as present in our daily lives as it is today Through any number of media outlets tens of millions of people are in daily contact with historical discourses and practices Between games informational articles social media posts and other sources history is everywhere in Civilization VI live action role playing games The Berlin Trilogy Game of Thrones and the works of Tolkien or Satrapi This rise in popularity of history along with an unprecedented access to social platforms provide opposing and irreconcilable views of what should be commemorated or debunked of decolonization and reconciliation and of other historical and social justice questions such as the elimination of police brutality and racism How can we help our youth develop the critical thinking they need to address these questions Reflecting on the use of works of non academic history in the classroom the authors of this book explore the use of popular or public history to teach historical thinking that will enable students to become informed and engaged citizens Giving a voice to the Oppressed? Agnès Arp, Annette Leo, Franka Maubach, 2019-12-16 Due to its internationality and interdisciplinarity the International Oral History Association IOHA which was founded in the late 1970 s is one of a kind in the academic landscape Driven by the desire to democratize historical scholarship its members wanted to give a voice to groups such as women workers migrants or victims of political dictatorships who had not been heard up to that point The contributions deal with the academic approaches and the political convictions of the previous generation Memory Laws, Memory Wars Nikolay Koposov, 2018 A major contribution to our understanding of present day historical consciousness through a study of memory laws across Europe Rethinking Historical Time Marek Tamm, Laurent Olivier, 2019-08-22 Is time out of joint For the past two centuries the dominant Western time regime has been future oriented and based on the linear progressive and homogeneous concept of time Over the last few decades there has been a shift towards a new present oriented regime or presentism made up of multiple and percolating temporalities Rethinking Historical Time engages with this change of paradigm providing a timely overview of cutting edge interdisciplinary approaches to this new temporal condition Marek Tamm and Laurent Olivier have brought together an international team of scholars working in history anthropology archaeology geography philosophy literature and visual studies to rethink the epistemological consequences of presentism for the study of past and to discuss critically the traditional assumptions that underpin research on historical time Beginning with an analysis of presentism the contributors move on to explore in historical and critical terms the idea of multiple temporalities before presenting a series of case studies on the variability of different forms of time in contemporary material culture Past and Power: Public Policies on Memory. Debates, from Global to Local Jordi Guixé, Coromines, 2016-05-26 The public authorities have not successfully resolved the management of the traumatic memory of the wars dictatorships and massacres to which the European project was always intended to be a counterpoint The conflict of memories and the public discourses about the past are latent on ideological political and cultural levels However if in the past the conflict concerning memories tended to develop inside the borders of countries it has now leapt into the European arena This has also led to the confrontation and questioning of the great narratives established in the common memory especially with countries of the East joining the European Union Each community group or nation maintains common memories that do not always fit in or converge with a general overall account The origins of the UB Solidarity Foundation s European Observatory on Memories lie in these debates and through this book which includes the contributions of specialists in multiple disciplines and the speeches that were given at the first international symposium Memory and Power A Transnational Perspective it hopes to present some of the key challenges that this conflict of memories has in store for us in the present and in the future Waiting Territories in the Americas Alain Musset, Laurent Vidal, 2016-09-23 Mobility and displacement are major characteristics of contemporary societies These population shifts are far from fluid homogeneous or linear but are instead interspersed with a range of longer or shorter periods of waiting Whether these intervals are technically administratively or politically motivated they are often understood in spatial terms waiting societies have a territorial dimension This volume examines and assesses the many forms that waiting territories take in order to better understand their various juridical statuses their relationships with their spatial environment and specific forms of temporality and the various economic and social relationships which they foster The contributions primarily focus on the Americas because this continent is the product of the voluntary or forced displacement of various population groups that have themselves left their mark on the territories which they have appropriated The book is divided into five parts Part I The Genealogy and Stakes of Waiting Situations presents waiting as a state of mobility Part II When Waiting Defines a Territory focuses on the spatial implications of situations of waiting Part III Social Practices and Spatial Dynamics in Waiting Territories explores the ways in which people inhabit waiting territories Part IV Waiting Territories and the Challenges to Identity examines the mutations of identity in situations of waiting and Part V The Memory Heritage and Curation of Waiting Territories looks at the way in which waiting territories can become the focus of heritage practices and the politics of memory

Performing Memories Gabriele Biotti, 2021-04-26 What is memory today How can it be approached Why does the contemporary world seem to be more and more haunted by different types of memories still asking for elaboration Which artistic experiences have explored and defined memory in meaningful ways How do technologies and the media have changed it These are just some of the questions developed in this collection of essays analysing memory and memory shapes which explores the different ways in which past time and its elaboration have been and still are elaborated discussed written or filmed and contested but also shared By gathering together scholars from different fields of investigation this book explores the cultural social and artistic tensions in representing the past and the present in understanding our legacies and in approaching historical time and experience Through the analysis of different representations of memory and the investigation of literature anthropology myth and storytelling a space of theories and discourses about the symbolic and cultural spaces of memory representation is developed

Memory, Subjectivities, and Representation Rina Benmayor, Pilar Dominguez Prats, María Eugenia Cardenal de la Nuez, 2016-04-29 This collection presents diverse scholarly approaches to oral narratives in the Spanish and Portuguese speaking worlds Eleven essays originally written in Spanish Portuguese and English coalesce around major themes that have long concerned oral historians and social scientists collective memories of conflictive national pasts subjectivity in re framing social identities and visual and performative re presentations of identity and public memory

Dissonant Heritages and Memories in Contemporary Europe Tuuli Lähdesmäki, Luisa Passerini, Sigrid Kaasik-Krogerus, Iris van Huis, 2019-08-13 This open access book discusses political economic social and humanitarian challenges that influence both how people deal with their past and how they build their identities in contemporary Europe Ongoing debates on migration on local national inter and transnational levels prove that it is a divisive issue with regards to understanding European integration and identity At the same time the European Union increasingly invests in projects related to European heritage museums and cultural memory networks while having to take dissonant heritages into account. These processes in their combination offer an interesting dynamic and form the complex puzzle that poses challenging questions for anyone involved in academic research, heritage practices and policy debates. With this puzzle at its core, this book explicitly focuses on slippery and transforming notions of Europe and critically discusses ongoing and transforming power structures of heritage and memory in today's Europe. The book combines theoretical and methodological contributions to the debates on European heritage and memory studies and in-depth analyses of empirical case studies. Its main aim is to bring research fields concerning memory and heritage into a closer dialogue and thus explore the cultural and political dynamics of contemporary Europe. History and Memory in the Dead Sea Scrolls Travis B. Williams, 2019-05-16 Charts a new methodological course in Dead Sea Scrolls scholarship by employing memory theory to inform historical research. This is an instructive resource for scholars who are seeking an alternative to currently constructed approaches to the subject and will be of appeal to those interested in the Dead Sea Scrolls more generally. L'Election interdite Fanny Bugnon, 2024-05-10 T00:00:00+02:00 En 1925, des femmes se présentent aux élections municipales sous la bannière communiste, alors même qu'elles n'ont pas le droit de vote et encore moins celui d'être élues. Parmi elles, Josphine Pencalet Douarnenez en Bretagne. Fille de marin, elle fait partie de ces sardinières, les Penn Sardin, qui quelques mois plus tard ont défrayé la chronique pour avoir mené une grève dure, longue et victorieuse. Elle est élue. C'est une première dans la vie politique française. Mais la victoire est de courte durée. L'élection est invalidée et Josphine Pencalet tombe dans l'oubli jusqu'à redécouverte progressive, la faveur des initiatives de passeurs de la mémoire locale et du nouveau féminisme. Mais qui était vraiment Josphine Pencalet ? Une Louise Michel bretonne ? Une féministe avant l'heure ? Pour répondre à ces questions, Fanny Bugnon se penche sur les archives, les traces et les silences laissés par cette femme au destin tout à la fois ordinaire et remarquable. Re-tracant son itinéraire, elle dévoile les enjeux sociaux, politiques et économiques qui ont traversé la condition féminine au cours du XX^e siècle, bien au-delà du port breton. Ma trousse de conférences en histoire contemporaine et études sur le genre à l'université Rennes 2. Fanny Bugnon a publié Le Sexe interdit (La sexualité des Françaises et sa répression), L'Iconoclaste (2022) avec Pierre Fourni et Les Amazones de la terreur (Essai sur la violence politique des femmes de la Fraction armée rouge, Action directe) (Payot, 2015). History Education at the Edge of the Nation Piero S. Colla, Andrea Di Michele, 2023-06-27 This edited volume explores the evolution of history education from a transnational perspective, focusing on border regions in Europe that are considered on the periphery of the Nation-State. By introducing this concept and taking into consideration the dynamics of decentralization and the development of minorities, teaching practices and narratives, the book sheds light on new challenges for history education policy and curriculum design. Chapters take a comparative approach, dissecting and analyzing specific case studies from school systems in France, Germany, Italy, the UK and Scandinavian countries. In doing so, the editors and their authors weave a systematic account of the impact of local autonomy on educational culture on the civic Ledoux, 2025-07-01 Within France the expression duty of memory le devoir de mémoire speaks to a complex and ever evolving relationship with the past Emerging in the 1970s this term raised questions about memorialization which dominated public debates in the 1990s highlighting France's entanglements with colonialism and the Holocaust Drawing on a variety of interviews archival sources and data surveys author Sébastien Ledoux spotlights how the trajectory of this term offers a lens for understanding contemporary societies relationship with the past on a global scale Le philosophe et le président
