Surfing and Modernity in the North of Scotland Matthew L. McDowell, 2024-09-11 For most people surfing is associated with Hawaii California and Australia with sun sand and scantily clad bodies However after the Second World War surfing also found a more unlikely home the north coast of Scotland In the 1960s and 1970s the first people to surf the Pentland Firth's world class waves braved brutal weather conditions poor or no wetsuits and baffled locals Equally as unlikely as surfing's presence on the north coast was its first permanent community founded amongst workers at a nuclear research facility with a notoriously poor safety record This book discusses the existence and evolution of surfing in the region from the 1960s to the present day It does not however focus just on surfing it also acts as a history of the region itself and examines the possibilities and limits of surfing sport and activities like them being used as a means of reinventing communities This book is therefore a valuable tool for historians sport practitioners and economic policymakers alike what can surfing tell us about the modern Highlands and Islands and indeed contemporary Scotland Visions of Paradise Wheeler W. Dixon, 2006

Illustrated throughout with rare stills and organized so as to provide historical context this book surveys an array of films that have offered us glimpses of a life that is meaningful free from strife devoid of pain and privation and full of harmony in every sense The Cultural Politics of Lifestyle Sports Belinda Wheaton, 2013-07-23 This important new study examines the changing place and meaning of lifestyle sports parkour surfing skateboarding kite surfing and others and asks whether they continue to pose a challenge to the dominant meanings and experience of sport and physical culture Drawing on a series of in depth empirical case studies the book offers a re evaluation of theoretical frameworks with which lifestyle sports have been understood and focuses on aspects of their cultural politics that have received little attention particularly the racialization of lifestyle sporting spaces Centrally it re assess the political potential of lifestyle sports considering if lifestyle sports cultures present alternative identities and spaces that challenge the dominant ideologies of sport and the broader politics of identity in the 21st century It explores a range of key contemporary themes in lifestyle sport including identity and the politics of difference commercialization and globalization sports spaces media discourse and lived reality risk and responsibility governance and regulation the racialization of lifestyle sports spaces lifestyle sports outside of the Global North the use of lifestyle sport to engage non privileged youth Casting new light on the significance of sport and sporting subcultures within contemporary society this book is essential reading for students or researcher working in the sociology of sport leisure studies or cultural studies

California Golden Melanie Benjamin, 2024-08-06 Two sisters navigate the thrilling euphoric early days of California surf culture in this dazzling saga of ambition sacrifice and the tangled ties between mothers and daughters from the New York Times bestselling author of The Aviator's Wife A shimmering rendering pairs the surf culture of the Beach Boys with the sex drugs and rock n roll of Daisy Jones The Six Entertainment Weekly Best Books of the Summer Southern California 1960s endless sunny days surfing in Malibu followed by glittering neon nights at Whisky a Go Go In an era when women are expected to be housewives Carol Donnelly breaks the mold as a legendary female surfer struggling to compete in a male dominated sport and her daughters Mindy and Ginger bear the weight of Carol's unconventional lifestyle The Donnelly sisters grow up enduring their mother's absence physically when she's at the beach and emotionally the rare times she's at home To escape questions about Carol's whereabouts and to chase her elusive affection they cut school to spend their days in the surf From her first time on a board Mindy is a natural but Ginger two years younger feels out of place in the water As they grow up and their lives diverge Mindy and Ginger's relationship ebbs and flows Mindy finds herself swept up in celebrity complete with beachside love affairs parties at the Playboy Club and a USO tour in Vietnam Meanwhile Ginger desperate for a community of her own is tugged into the dangerous counterculture of drugs and cults But through it all their sense of duty to each other survives as the girls are forever connected by the emotional damage they carry from their unorthodox childhood A gripping emotional story set at a time when mothers were expected to be Donna Reed not Gidget California Golden is an unforgettable novel about three women living in a society that was shifting as tempestuously as the breaking waves
