Moody's International Manual, 2000 Consumption: The history and regional development of consumption Daniel Miller, 2001 Social Mobility in Kerala Filippo Osella, Caroline Osella, 2000-12-20 The Izhavas are an ex untouchable community in the southern Indian state of Kerala Politically and economically weak stigmatised as toddy tappers and devil dancers and considered unapproachable by clean caste Hindus a century ago Izhavas were associated with other manual labouring untouchable castes In recent decades they have sought to improve their position by accumulating economic symbolic and cultural capital through employment religion politics migration marriage education and have tried to assert their right to mobility often in the face of opposition from their high status Christian and Nayar neighbours This study examines how Izhavas through repudiation of their nineteenth century identity and search for mobility have come into complex relationships with modernity colonialism and globalisation Filippo Osella and Caroline Osella highlight the complexities and contradictions of modern identity both locally and globally The authors approach builds upon and goes beyond a south Asian focus showing how the Izhavas represent the rise of formerly stigmatised groups who remain at the same time trapped by stereotype and material disadvantage Absolute mobility they argue has not led to relative mobility within a society which remains stratified and prone to new forms of social exclusion Consumption Daniel Miller, 2001
