

The background of the cover features a detailed anatomical illustration of a human figure in shades of red. On the left, a large, semi-transparent illustration of a human torso and right arm is shown, revealing the underlying skeletal structure, including the ribs, spine, and arm bones. The muscles and skin are depicted in various tones of red. In the background, to the right, is a smaller, more solid-looking illustration of a full human figure standing, also in red tones. The overall style is that of a classic medical textbook illustration.
