Psychiatric Power Michel Foucault,2008-06-24 In Psychiatric Power the fourth volume in the collection of his groundbreaking lectures at the Collège de France Michel Foucault addresses and expands upon the ideas in his seminal Madness and Civilization sketching the genealogy of psychiatry and of its characteristic form of power knowledge Madness and Civilization undertook the archeology of the division according to which in Western Society the madman found himself separated from the sane That book ends with the medicalization of madness at the beginning of the nineteenth century Psychiatric Power continues this discourse up to the end of the nineteenth century and the double depsychiatrization of madness now dispersed between the neurologist and the psychoanalyst Presented in a conversational tone Psychiatric Power brings fresh access and light to the work of one of the past century's preeminent thinkers A stranger's wonderful chronicles, Book 2 Antoine Archange Raphael,2012-08-31 The reporter Brian Clifford has no other alternative but to believe that a stranger with extraordinary power has been spreading goodness in his wake He has also learned that stranger gives new meanings to words such as love duties fellowmen brothers and sisters in humanity Mutual discovery, at the end of the tunnel Antoine Archange Raphael,2013-10-08 Racial conflicts more than ever are in full swing and stir up human relationships However Bernard and Marie manage to change their nascent hatred to harmony mutual discovery and love To reach such positive outcome they agree to talk about existential conditions On the Government of the Living Michel

Foucault,2016-03-08 With these lectures Foucault inaugurates his investigations of truth telling in the ethical domain of practices of techniques of the self How and why he asks does the government of men require those subject to power to be subjects who must tell the truth about themselves Publisher's website Repair the World Alexandre Gefen,2024-08-19

Talk of repair has become ubiquitous in recent years In the age of trauma culture art and literature have a new purpose to do justice to console comfort and heal Drawing on works of twenty first century French language literature this monograph shows how literature can not only serve as a means of personal development but expand our capacity for empathy help repair the brokenness implied in victimhood and redress individual and collective traumas Centered on a critical reflection on discourses of repair and reparations it questions the canonical theories on the functions of literature and proposes a new way of writing and reading literary history Praise Repair the World is an invigorating and essential call to arms The modern category of the literary it declares is being outpaced by the contemporary uses of literature as a medium of exorcism empathy reparation testimony commemoration existential renewal and ethical or political connectivity Neither celebrating nor condemning such uses Gefen models a much needed style of criticism interdisciplinary pragmatic relational that comes to grips with their importance Rita Felski the John Stewart Bryan Professor and Professor of English at the University of Virginia USA In an era where self help memoir and autobiography command more than their fair share of publisher s lists in France it s tempting some fifty years after post structuralism s heyday to ascribe an impending death of literature to a taste for narcissistic exhibitionism in French literary culture But why bemoan the waning relevance of the question what is literature asks Alexandre Gefen when evidence abounds in the new century that literary writing increasingly posits itself as a restorative reparative act In the best instances authors who give form to embodied experience imaginatively forge with their readers empathetic bonds of the sort that secular and religious institutions long sustained Repair the World is not only a capacious study of writers who hail from surprisingly broad sectors of French society from health and social workers to skilled laborers journalists and educators it s a situated call for a pragmatics of reading that makes of each book an intervention into the fabric of the real Harnessing sources in affect theory trauma studies ethics and cognitive science Alexandre Gefen performs a critically reparative act all his own reminding us that the notion of literature as autonomous object was itself a historical construct in short an ideology Reading and writing have always conjoined care for the self and care for others and it s upon that reciprocity that the communities of sense of tomorrow can flourish in a spirit of reparative humanism Derek Schilling Professor of French Director of the Centre Louis Marin Department of Modern Languages and Literatures Johns Hopkins University USA Alexandre Gefen s wide ranging thought provoking study takes stock of a paradigm shift in contemporary French literature away from a model of autonomy and intransitivity to ways of writing and reading that seek to repair restore reassure and rebuild From the varied forms of expressivity found in self narratives to the empathetic projections of fiction Repair the World maps out an expanding literary territory that seeks not critical negativity but rather the power to intervene for good in individual and collective life While reserving judgment on the actual extent of literature s effects Gefen demonstrates that contemporary projects and discourses undeniably center the therapeutic and remediative uses of literature With its nuanced readings and keen insights Repair the World has been rightly influential in France its powerful diagnosis of contemporary sensibilities resonates far beyond revealing both the promises and predicaments of literature in the twenty first century Alison James Professor of French and Chair of the Department of Romance Languages and Literatures at the University of Chicago USA What would it mean to ask Sartre s post war question What is literature in the 21st century In this wonderful essay Alexandre Gefen argues convincingly that the main purpose of literature today is to repair a broken world and memorialise forgotten lives Taking examples from predominantly contemporary French literature he proposes that literature as therapy has replaced religions of salvation a politics of emancipation and formal experimentation Today literature s mission is to heal traumatised individuals and communities resurrect the lives of the vulnerable and commemorate their deeds in the face of the forces of oblivion For Gefen Patrick Modiano s Dora Bruder 1997 is the contemporary literary archetype of these lost identities to be rehabilitated and reinhabited Gefen describes this new role for literature without taking sides the writing is lucid compelling and non partisan In an age of victimhood testimony empathy self expression and identity Gefen s reparative paradigm is as persuasive as Sartre s political version in the age of ideology Max Silverman Professor of Modern French Studies University of Leeds UK
