La Fracture Coloniale:

Black France Dominic Thomas, 2007 Without a doubt one of the most important studies so far completed on literature in French grounded in the experiences of migrants of sub Saharan African origin Alec Hargreaves Florida State University France has always hosted a rich and vibrant black presence within its borders But recent violent events have raised questions about France's treatment of ethnic minorities Challenging the identity politics that have set immigrants against the mainstream Black France explores how black expressive culture has been reformulated as global culture in the multicultural and multinational spaces of France Thomas brings forward questions such as Why is France a privileged site of civilization Who is French Who is an immigrant Who controls the networks of production Black France poses an urgently needed reassessment of the French colonial legacy The Portrait and the Colonial Imaginary Simon Dell, 2020-02-26 French colonisers of the Third Republic claimed not to oppress but to liberate imagining they were spreading republican ideals to the colonies to make a Greater France In this book Simon Dell explores the various roles played by portraiture in this colonial imaginary Anyone interested in the history of colonial Africa will have encountered innumerable portraits of African elites produced during the first half of the twentieth century yet no book to date has focused on these ubiquitous images Dell analyses the production and dissemination of such portraits and situates them in a complex and conflicted field of representations Moving between European and African perspectives The Portrait and the Colonial Imaginary blends history with art history to provide insights into the larger processes that were transforming the French metropole and colonies during the early twentieth century This publication is GPRC labeled Guaranteed Peer Reviewed Content Contemporary French cinema Guy Austin, 2021-06-15 Contemporary French cinema is an essential introduction to popular French film of the last 35 years It charts recent developments in all genres of French cinema with analyses of over 120 movies from Les Valseuses to Caché Reflecting the diversity of French film production since the New Wave this clear and perceptive study includes chapters on the heritage film the thriller and the war movie alongside the cinéma du look representations of sexuality comedies the work of women film makers and le jeune cinéma Each chapter introduces the public reception and critical debates surrounding a given genre interwoven with detailed accounts of relevant films Confirmed as a major contribution to both Film Studies and French Studies this book is a fascinating volume for students and fans of French film alike Love Under the Skin Cécile Coquet-Mokoko, 2020-04-15 The rising visibility of interracial couples calls for increased attention to the overlapping of culture and race in safe spaces centered on small group dynamics or in public spaces where peoples of African descent are under the public gaze This comparative study seeks to de-center the U.S. centered viewpoint common to much of the literature on black white relations Based on nine years of fieldwork in the American South and in France Coquet shows many unexpected parallels between the two societies Gendered perceptions of cultural authenticity and sexual ethics are a guiding thread being inseparable from the historical and political contingencies re defining acceptable forms of dating marrying and parenting among cis heterosexual couples in both societies Her account emphasizes resilience and agency as couples seek to protect themselves and their children while their extended or symbolic kinship networks help white partners acknowledge the existence of racial privilege

Remnants of the Franco-Algerian Rupture Mona El Khoury, 2020-09-28 At the end of French colonization in Algeria four categories of people held French citizenship or had strong ties with France European settlers Jews mixed race individuals and Harkis The end of the War of Independence exiled most of them from Algeria traumatized them in various ways and transferred many to metropolitan France Remnants of the Franco Algerian Rupture Archiving Postcolonial Minorities examines the legacies of these transnational identities through narratives that dissent from official histories both in France and Algeria This literature takes particular stories of exile and loss and constructs a memory around a Mosaic father figure embodying the native land Algeria Mona El Khoury argues that these filiation narratives create a postcolonial archive a discursive foundation that makes historical minorities visible while disrupting French and Algerian hegemonies El Khoury questions the power of literature to repair history while contending that these literary strategies seek to do justice to the dead Algerian father even as they valorize enduring minority identifications

Negotiations of Migration Annimari Juvonen, Verena Lindemann Lino, 2021-08-23 At a time when migration is mostly discussed in terms of conflict and crisis it is decidedly important to acknowledge the discursive traditions narrative patterns and conceptual categories that continue to inform how migration is represented analyzed and theorized in contemporary Europe This volume focuses on the potential of artistic and critical practices to challenge hegemonic framings of migration and embrace the ambivalence inherent in migration as a conflictual often violent yet also liberating uprooting By placing special emphasis on peripheral perspectives and subject positions the volume provides new insights into topics such as belonging and exclusion the migrant crisis and memory By bringing into dialogue creative practices and academic discourses it explores how new modes of seeing and theorizing may emerge through experiences and representations of migration Situated within the field of literary and cultural studies it complements historical and social analyses in the emerging interdisciplinary field of migration studies

The Diaspora of the Comoros in France Katharina Fritsch, 2022-07-15 Based on an ethnographic study of mobilisations of the Comorian diaspora in Marseille during political and cultural events the book examines communitarisation in relation to three thematic areas namely spaces cultural markets and local politics Drawing on Foucault's concept of the dispositif the author analyses mobilisations of postcolonial diaspora as part of a dispositif of communitarisation that is a set of discourses practices institutions and subjectivations of diasporic community She argues that constructions of community are both shaped by and shape ethnicised biopolitics expressed by modes of governing diasporic groups along ethnicised divisions and a marking of ethnicised communities as the Other of the French Republic The performativity of a Comorian community brought into being through political cultural economic and customary practices also shows how Comorian communities govern themselves along ethnicised categories at the intersection with generation gender age classes locality and class Communitarianisation processes as part of ethnicised self governing reveal postcolonial power relations in France as well as practices of negotiation and contestation on the part of Comorian communities This book will be of interest to scholars in the fields of critical diaspora studies critical ethnography discourse and dispositional analysis postcolonial politics and the African diaspora Postcolonial France Paul Silverstein, 2018-05-20 France is a bellwether for the postcolonial anxieties and populist politics emerging across the world today This book explores the dynamics and dilemmas of the present moment of crisis and hope in France through an exploration of recent moral panics Taking stock of the tensions as they have emerged over the last quarter of a century Paul Silverstein looks at urban racial violence female Islamic dress and male public prayer anti system gangster rap and sporting performances in and around which debates over France's multicultural future have arisen It traces these conflicts to the unresolved tensions of an imperial project the present day effects of which are still felt by many Despite the barriers which include neo nationalist racism and Islamophobia French citizens of various backgrounds have found ways to build flourishing lives Silverstein shows how they have responded to urban marginalisation police violence and institutional discrimination in remarkably creative ways The Invention of Race Nicolas Bancel, Thomas David, Dominic Thomas, 2014-04-24 This edited collection explores the genesis of scientific conceptions of race and their accompanying impact on the taxonomy of human collections internationally as evidenced in ethnographic museums world fairs zoological gardens international colonial exhibitions and ethnic shows A deep epistemological change took place in Europe in this domain toward the end of the eighteenth century producing new scientific representations of race and thereby triggering a radical transformation in the visual economy relating to race and racial representation and its inscription in the body These practices would play defining roles in shaping public consciousness and the representation of otherness in modern societies The Invention of Race provides contextualization that is often lacking in contemporary discussions on diversity multiculturalism and race Space, Difference, Everyday Life Kanishka Goonewardena, Stefan Kipfer, Richard Milgrom, Christian Schmid, 2008-02-19 In the past fifteen years Henri Lefebvre's reputation has catapulted into the stratosphere and he is now considered an equal to some of the greats of European social theory Bourdieu Deleuze Harvey In particular his work has revitalized urban studies geography and planning via concepts like the social production of space the right to the city everyday life and global urbanization Lefebvre's massive body of work has generated two main schools of thought one that is political economic and another that is more culturally oriented and poststructuralist in tone Space Difference and Everyday Life merges these two schools of thought into a unified Lefebvrian approach to contemporary urban issues and the nature of our spatialized social structures The French Atlantic Bill Marshall, 2009-01-01 The French Atlantic is a compelling and timely contribution to ongoing debates about nationhood culture and Frenchness that have come to define France and its diaspora in light of the diplomatic fracas surrounding the Iraq war and other mass cultural events

With interdisciplinary navigation of fields nearly as diverse as the locations he explores Bill Marshall considers the cultural history of seven different French Atlantic spaces from Quebec to the southern Caribbean to North Atlantic territory and back to metropolitan France in this groundbreaking study of the Atlantic world Museums in Postcolonial Europe Dominic Thomas, 2013-09-13 The history of European nation building and identity formation is inextricably connected with museums and the role they play in displaying the acquired spoils and glorious symbols of geopolitical power in order to mobilize public support for expansionist ventures This book examines the contemporary debate surrounding the museum in postcolonial Europe Although there is no consensus on the European colonial experience the process of decolonization in Europe has involved an examination of the museum's place and ethnic minorities and immigrants have insisted upon improved representation in the genealogies of European nation states Museological practices have been subjected to greater scrutiny in light of these political and social transformations In addition to the refurbishment and restructuring of colonial era museums new spaces have also been inaugurated to highlight the contemporary importance of museums in postcolonial Europe as well as the significance of incorporating the perspective of postcolonial European populations into these spaces This book includes contributions from leading experts in their fields and represents a comparative trans historical and transcolonial examination which contextualises and reinterprets to the legacies and experiences of European museums This book was published as a special issue of Africa and Black Diaspora: An International Journal Contesting Views Edward Welch, Joseph McGonagle, 2013 This study investigates how relations between France and Algeria have been represented and contested through visual means since the outbreak of the Algerian War in 1954 Post-migratory Cultures in Postcolonial France Kathryn A. Kleppinger, Laura Reeck, 2018 Post Migratory Cultures in Postcolonial France offers a critical assessment of the ways in which French writers filmmakers musicians and other artists descended from immigrants from former colonial territories bring their specificity to bear on the bounds and applicability of French republicanism Frenchness and national identity and contemporary cultural production in France In mobilizing a range of approaches and methodologies pertinent to their specialist fields of inquiry contributors to this volume share in the common objective of elucidating the cultural productions of what we are calling post migratory second and third generation postcolonial minorities The volume provides a lens through which to query the dimensions of postcoloniality and transnationalism in relation to post migratory postcolonial minorities in France and identifies points of convergence and conversation among them in the range of their cultural production The cultural practitioners considered query traditional French high culture and its pathways and institutions some emerge as autodidacts introducing new forms of authorship and activism they inflect French cultural production with different accents some experimental and even avant garde in nature As the volume contributors show though post migratory postcolonial minorities sometimes express dis settlement they also provide an incisive view of social identities in France today and their own compelling visions for the future France's Colonial

Legacies Fiona Barclay, 2013-10-15 In an era of commemoration France's Colonial Legacies contributes to the debates taking place in France about the place of empire in the contemporary life of the nation debates that have been underway since the 1990s and that now reach across public life and society with manifestations in the French parliament media and universities France's empire and the gradual process of its loss is one of the defining narratives of the contemporary nation contributing to the construction of its image both on the international stage and at home While certain intellectuals present the imperial period as an historical irrelevance that ended in the years following the Second World War the contested legacies of France's colonies continue to influence the development of French society in the view of scholars of the postcolonial This volume surveys the memorial practices and discourses that are played out in a range of arenas drawing on the expertise of researchers working in the fields of politics media cultural studies literature and film to offer a wide ranging picture of remembrance in contemporary France Echoes of Empire Kalypso Nicolaidis, Berny Sebe, Gabrielle Maas, 2014-12-23 How does our colonial past echo through today's global politics How have former empire builders sought vindication or atonement and formerly colonized states reversal or retribution This groundbreaking book presents a panoramic view of attitudes to empires past and present seen not only through the hard politics of international power structures but also through the nuances of memory historiography and national and minority cultural identities Bringing together leading historians political scientists and international relations scholars from across the globe Echoes of Empire emphasizes Europe's colonial legacy whilst also highlighting the importance of non European power centres Ottoman Russian Chinese Japanese in shaping world politics then and now Echoes of Empire bridges the divide between disciplines to trace the global routes travelled by objects ideas and people and forms a radically different notion of the term empire itself This will be an essential companion to courses on international relations and imperial history as well as a fascinating read for anyone interested in Western hegemony North South relations global power shifts and the longue durée Colonial Culture in France since the Revolution Pascal Blanchard, Sandrine Lemaire, Nicolas Bancel, Dominic Thomas, 2013-12-02 This landmark collection by an international group of scholars and public intellectuals represents a major reassessment of French colonial culture and how it continues to inform thinking about history memory and identity This reexamination of French colonial culture provides the basis for a revised understanding of its cultural political and social legacy and its lasting impact on postcolonial immigration the treatment of ethnic minorities and national identity Postcolonial Realms of Memory Etienne Achille, Charles Forsdick, Lydie Moudileno, 2020-02-07 An elegant yet accessible work Postcolonial Realms of Memory not only exposes the colonial blind spot that left Pierre Nora's Lieux de mémoire incomplete but begins the long task of remedying it This is a crucial intervention that the field has required for some time Gemma King Contemporary French Civilization: The Construction of Minority Identities in France and Britain G. Raymond, 2007-11-09 In France the idea that a person can be both a French citizen and have an ethnic or religious identity is unacceptable while in Britain community cohesion promote the combining of race or faith with the idea of being British This volume examines the problems posed by these assumptions and the realities that are forcing them to be revisited From empire to exile Claire Eldridge, 2016-07-22 This book explores the commemorative afterlives of the Algerian War of Independence 1954-62 one of the world's most iconic wars of decolonisation It focuses on the million French settlers pieds noirs and the tens of thousands of harkis the French army's native auxiliaries who felt compelled to migrate to France when colonial rule ended Challenging the idea that Algeria was a forgotten war that only returned to French public attention in the 1990s this study reveals a dynamic picture of memory activism undertaken continuously since 1962 by grassroots communities connected to this conflict Reconceptualising the ways in which the Algerian War has been debated evaluated and commemorated in the subsequent five decades From empire to exile makes an original contribution to important discussions surrounding the contentious issues of memory migration and empire in contemporary France that will appeal to students and scholars of history and cultural studies
