

DEFENCE INTELLIGENCE

BACKGROUND

MILITARY SKILLS DEVELOPMENT SYSTEM (MSDS)

In cooperation with the Services (SA Army, SA Air Force and SA Navy), Defence Intelligence is offering young South African citizens an excellent opportunity to serve in uniform over a two-year period. The Military Skills Development System (MSDS) is a two-year voluntary service system which is aimed at affording young people skills, which could assist in their quest for employment in the job market. Young recruits are required to sign up for a period of two-years, during which they will receive Military Training, further Functional Training and skills training.

Minimum Requirements:

- South African Citizen with no dual citizenship.
- Aged between 18 and 22 with Grade 12 or 18 and 26 for applicants with tertiary qualifications (national diploma / degree/post graduate diplomas and post graduate degrees)
- Preferably single.
- Not be area bound.
- Have no criminal record or pending cases.
- Comply with medical fitness requirements for appointments in the SANDF.
- Be free from physical disabilities and do not suffer from claustrophobia or a fear of heights.
- Be willing to undergo pre-employment screening, psychometric testing and security vetting.

- Successfully completed Grade 12 Applicants (Preferably with university entrance): A National Senior Certificate (NSC) as certified by Umabul, with Degree or National Diploma Admission. A mark of at least 50% – 60% in Afrikaans or English and a mark of at least 5 (50% – 60%) in each of the four school subjects (preferably Mathematics, Computer Application Technology, Physical Science /History and Geography) from the list of designated university admission subjects.

- National Diploma/ Graduate Applicants: National Diploma Security Risk Management, IT qualifications or a degree with the preferred study fields of Political Science, Africa Studies, International Relations, Social / Psychological Sciences or Security Studies.

Training: Defence Intelligence is mandated to conduct intelligence and counter-intelligence on behalf of the DOD and as such must ensure an HR complement equipped with the necessary skills and attributes. Recruits will be compelled to complete the Basic Military Training and if successful Officers Formative within the Service of choice, followed with Functional Intelligence Training. Selected officers will be afforded the opportunity to enrol for a prescribed three year degree at the Faculty Military Science, Stellenbosch University.

Professional Development of Officers Study: Policy impact analysis Charles W. Bagnal,United States. Department of the Army. Professional Development of Officers Study Group,1985 Supporting Personalized Learning and Students' Skill Development With AI Khaldi, Mohamed,2025-03-05 The integration of artificial intelligence AI into education has the potential to fundamentally change pedagogical practices with a positive impact on all aspects of teaching and learning It is possible to design personalized learning paths for each learner including those with special needs or who speak different languages by adjusting the content and pace according to their strengths and weaknesses AI tools such as virtual assistants and interactive educational applications can give immediate feedback to learners which is of paramount importance to keep them engaged and encourage continuous learning Similarly teachers can view AI based data analytics and recommendations to improve their teaching methods and adapt their strategies in real time Supporting Personalized

Learning and Students Skill Development With AI offers an in depth exploration of how to integrate AI technology into pedagogical practice to revolutionize education by exploring all aspects of AI in education from intelligent tutoring systems that tailor lessons to the needs of each learner to automating administrative tasks that save teachers time While addressing the ethical and practical challenges of this transformation it highlights the urgent need to equip educators with the skills they need to benefit from AI Covering topics such as autonomous learning emotion detection and digital literacy this book is an excellent resource for teachers school administrators educational decision makers computer developers professionals scholars academicians researchers and more Federal Register ,2013 Professional Journal of the United States Army ,2017-07 African Peace Militaries David Francis,2017-08-16 This book provides a critical understanding of the emerging role of African militaries in peacetime democratic Africa This book departs from the dominant perspective which simply presents the military as an enemy of democracy because of the history and legacy of unending military coup d tats and interventions in civilian politics In the context of Africa the military has been blamed or largely held responsible for instigating wars armed conflicts political violence poverty and underdevelopment due to bad governance and mismanagement of the state Drawing from diverse case studies across Africa including Nigeria Rwanda Uganda Ethiopia and Egypt this volume presents the argument that though the military has played a negative and sometimes destructive role in undermining constitutional rule and the overthrow of democratic civilian governments the same military now operating in a changed global environment is making effort to support the development of democracy and democratic consolidation as well as remain subjected to civilian democratic oversight and control Notwithstanding the real challenge for this emerging trend of African peace militaries is the extent to which they are able to fulfil on a predictable and consistent basis their constitutional mandate to defend the people against elected autocrats in Africa who try to use the military to perpetuate themselves in power This work fills a critical gap in the literature and will be of much interest to students of African security and politics peace and conflict studies security studies and IR in general Monthly Catalog of United States Government Publications ,1967 Federal Register Index ,2010 Strategic Communications in Russia Katerina Tsetsura,Dean Kruckeberg,2020-09-07 This book serves as a reader exploring the scholarly inquiry professional education and practice of Russian public relations and advertising in multiple contexts It examines significant parts of what can be encompassed under the umbrella of strategic communications including public relations and advertising rather than investigating all areas of communication in Russia Within the context of Russia s history culture and ideology the book begins by tracing the development of communication as a field as a discipline and as a social institution in Russia It then samples current studies in Russian strategic communications examining this professional specialization s current state and likely future directions The book s authors are mostly Russians who are experts in their specializations Chapters are predicated upon the premise that this is an exciting time of great opportunity for Russian strategic communications However in Russia exploiting such opportunities for strategic communications scholarship education and professional practice presents challenges within the context of that nation's cultural historical and ideological heritage that presently may be unique. The book concludes with a prognosis of the future of Russian strategic communications. The book is recommended reading for a worldwide audience of strategic communications scholars, educators, students, and practitioners. Such readers will find the book of interest and of unique value as the book will help them to better understand, appreciate, and respect Russian strategic communications, its genesis, and present state.

Encyclopedia of Business and Professional Ethics Deborah C. Poff, Alex C. Michalos, 2023-05-24. This encyclopedia, edited by the past editors and founder of the Journal of Business Ethics, is the only reference work dedicated entirely to business and professional ethics. Containing over 2000 entries, this multi-volume major research reference work provides a broad-based disciplinary and interdisciplinary approach to all of the key topics in the field. The encyclopedia draws on three interdisciplinary and overlapping fields: business ethics, professional ethics, and applied ethics, although the main focus is on business ethics. The breadth of scope of this work draws upon the expertise of human and social scientists as well as that of professionals and scientists in varying fields. This work has come to fruition by making use of the expert academic input from the extraordinarily rich population of current and past editorial board members and section editors of and contributors to the Journal of Business Ethics.

The Department of Labor's ... Findings on the Worst Forms of Child Labor, 2005. Enduring Myths That Inhibit School Turnaround Coby V. Meyers, Marlene J. Darwin, 2017-05-01. The concept of school turnaround—rapidly improving schools and increasing student achievement outcomes in a short period of time—has become politicized despite the relative newness of the idea. Unprecedented funding levels for school improvement combined with few examples of schools substantially increasing student achievement outcomes has resulted in doubt about whether or not turnaround is achievable. Skeptics have enumerated a number of reasons to abandon school turnaround at this early juncture. This book is the first in a new series on school turnaround and reform intended to spur ongoing dialogue among and between researchers, policymakers, and practitioners on improving the lowest performing schools and the systems in which they operate. The turnaround challenge remains salient regardless of what we call it. We must improve the nation's lowest performing schools for many moral, social, and economic reasons. In this first book, education researchers and scholars have identified a number of myths that have inhibited our ability to successfully turn schools around. Our intention is not to suggest that if these myths are addressed, school turnaround will always be achieved. Business and other literatures outside of education make it clear that turnaround is at best difficult work. However, for a number of reasons, we in education have developed policies and practices that are often antithetical to turnaround. Indeed, we are making already challenging work harder. The myths identified in this book suggest that we still struggle to define or understand what we mean by turnaround or how best or even adequately measure whether it has been achieved. Moreover, it is clear that there are a number of factors limiting how effectively we structure and support low performing schools both systemically and locally And we have done a rather poor job of effectively leveraging human resources to raise student achievement and improve organizational outcomes We anticipate this book having wide appeal for researchers policymakers and practitioners in consideration of how to support these schools taking into account context root causes of low performance and the complex work to ensure their opportunity to be successful Too frequently we have expected these schools to turn themselves around while failing to assist them with the vision and supports to realize meaningful lasting organizational change The myths identified and debunked in this book potentially illustrate a way forward
