BACKGROUND

THE MILITARY SKILLS DEVELOPMENT SYSTEM (MSDS)

The SA Army, through its Military Skills Development System (MSDS), is offering young South African citizens an opportunity to serve in uniform over a two-year period. The Military Skills Development System is a two-year voluntary service system with the long term goal of enhancing the SA National Defence Force's deployment capability.

MSDS Candidates will be appointed in a specific corps career and will be called up to a Training Unit, where members will complete their Basic Military Training, Corps Functional Training, in the first year and be utilized and deployed in the second year of the MSDS.

Requirements:

- Be a SA Citizen
- MSDS Applicants must be between the ages of 18-22 years
- MSDS Graduates and/or other Tertiary Qualification up to the age of 25 years
- Successfully completed Grade 12 (preferable with exemption)
- Leadership potential
- Not be area bound
- Have no record of criminal offence or pending cases
- Preferably Single
- Comply with medical fitness requirements for appointment in the SANDF
- Be prepared to serve in uniform, undergo Basic Military and Functional Training

N.B. During the selections, the applicants will be subject to Psychometric Test; Medical Evaluation; Vetting on criminal record and Verification of qualifications.

Training:

The SA Army's mandate focuses on the provisioning of combat ready forces and plays a leading role in landward operations. Training will be decentralized to operational units where members will be appointed to undergo Basic Military Training, Corps training and deployment.

MSDS applicants must be between the ages of 18 to 22 to be considered. Applicants who are in possession of a post Grade 12 qualification (Degree, Diploma or N6) must be between the ages of 18 to 25 may also be considered.

Successful applicants will be required to serve in uniform and undergo Military Training. Incomplete forms will not be considered. Only applicants who have passed Grade 12 may apply and must not be older than the age as stipulated above on the date of reporting for training. Certified copies of ID document, Grade 12 certificate or Post grade 12 qualifications and CV must accompany this application form to SA Army Recruitment, Private Bag X 981, Pretoria 0001.

Military Veteran Employment Nathan D. Ainspan, Kristin N. Saboe, 2021 Setting the historical context for this book this chapter describes the recent history of civilian veteran employment relaying how the high military veteran unemployment rate in 2010 generated concern and reactions from the government and the public and the private sectors It then provides examples of how government and companies worked together to improve the employment situation of military veterans through legislation corporate hiring programs and corporate partnerships but faced limited success because too few companies were involved The current situation of veteran employment and retention is outlined with examples provided of why military veterans may choose to leave civilian employment and suggestions offered to address the issues veteran employees may have in their jobs so that employers can do a better job of retaining them in their workforces

Contemporary Military Reserves Eyal Ben-Ari, Vincent Connelly, 2022-12-30 This book offers a comparative study of military reserves in contemporary democracies A combination of budgetary pressures new missions and emerging military roles during the past three decades has led the armed forces of democracies to rethink the training and use of reserve forces Moreover reservists have become central to the armed forces as part of moves towards total or comprehensive defense Despite this a scholarly bias towards studying regulars and conscripts means that reservists and reserve soldiers continue to receive only marginal attention This volume fills that lacuna through a series of country studies examining how best to understand the peculiarities of reservist service In contrast to regulars and conscripts reservists are marked by their dual management of civilian and military careers different family dynamics diverse motivations and commitment to the armed forces the material and non material incentives they are offered and their place in the political sphere This volume suggests two frames to make sense of such differences first it looks at reservists as transmigrants traveling between the military and civilian worlds and second it analyzes the multiple informal contracts and negotiations that bind them to the military All the chapters adopt these conceptualizations granting the volume a common focus and integrative frame The volume will be of much interest to students of military and strategic studies civil military relations sociology and International Relations

Military Construction, Veterans Affairs, and Related Agencies Appropriations for 2015, Part 1, 113-2 Hearings, 2014 Open Participatory Security Jesse Paul Lehrke, 2017-08-15 Our modern security systems have recently come under a lot of criticism as too bureaucratic and unadaptable too secretive and untrustworthy and too obsessed with information technology rather than human needs Yet listing failures is easy security is never perfect The question is why current approaches fail and whether there are viable alternatives The root of their shortcomings is in the interaction of the very pillars of our security system in the contemporary context While our enemies have adopted the technologies of the Information Age changing how they organize and fight these same technologies have only created more vulnerabilities for states Governments have been generally unwilling to maximize their use of these technologies because it would require the wider release of information and the opening of organizational structures to include society in security making Yet countering diffuse modern threats striking deep into our states and across our economies requires mobilizing the diffuse skills and variation of modern society Open approaches for mobilizing participation and coproduction have the capabilities needed to improve contemporary security policy making problem solving and provision Moreover open participatory security can be effective not only for technical security but also for restoring trust among the citizens and rebuilding the legitimacy of the state
