World History Elisabeth Gaynor Ellis, Anthony Esler, 2014

Teaching Educational Leadership in Muslim Countries Eugenie A. Samier, Eman S. ElKaleh, 2019-04-10 This book explores the Islamic tradition and Muslim contexts for educational administration and leadership It addresses the teaching of educational administration and leadership from an Islamic perspective by raising issues of globalised educational administration and leadership teaching as it applies in Muslim contexts that vary by culture and social institutions The book proposes alternative approaches and demonstrates that Islamic traditions have a strong foundation upon which to build in the field and are compatible with many aspects of Western theory and practices provided that sufficient modifications and adaptations are made The book focuses on postgraduate curricula and pedagogy drawing on a range of theoretical foundations and approaches that are culturally and jurisdictionally appropriate in a number of Muslim countries As such it contributes to an emerging specialisation in international and comparative educational administration and leadership that is oriented towards a broader and more diverse set of perspectives particularly from the non Western world

Marketing in the Emerging Markets of Islamic Countries M. Marinov, 2006-11-28 The book offers an exciting overview of the marketing opportunities challenges and traditions in Islamic countries Providing an insight into the specifics of marketing in Islamic countries the book is an interesting and helpful read for marketers students and all who enjoy marketing challenges presented by less well known emerging markets

Britain and the Muslim World Gerald MacLean, 2010-10-12 Based on papers presented at an international three day conference sponsored by the British Academy and held at the Institute for Arab and Islamic Studies at the University of Exeter in April 2009 this collection of essays provides a comprehensive and accessible synthesis of the most advanced specialist and scholarly knowledge to date concerning historical perspectives on relations between Britain and the Muslim World Ranging from the early modern period to the present day the essays collected here represent work by leading writers and scholars from relevant fields history international relations economics religion law art history and design film studies and sociology as well as literary and cultural studies These essays explore the historical impacts of cross cultural encounters between Islam and Britain by variously addressing the question of how relations between Britain and the Muslim world in the past have brought us to our current situation and in some cases by proposing directions for necessary further consideration and research

The Routledge Handbook of Halal Hospitality and Islamic Tourism C. Michael Hall, Girish Prayag, 2019-05-20 The Routledge Handbook of Halal Hospitality and Islamic Tourism provides a greater understanding of the current debates associated with Islamic tourism and halal hospitality in the context of businesses communities destinations and the wider socio political context It therefore sheds substantial light on one of the most significant travel and consumer markets in the world today and the important role of religion in contemporary hospitality and tourism The book examines halal hospitality and lodging Islamic markets product developments heritage certification and emerging and future trends and issues It integrates case studies from a range of countries and destinations and in doing so emphasises the significant differences that exist with respect to regulating and commodifying halal as well as stressing that the Islamic market is not monolithic Written by highly regarded international academics it offers a range of perspectives and enables a comprehensive discussion of this integral part of Islam and contemporary society This handbook will be of significant interest to upper level students researchers and academics in the various disciplines of Tourism Hospitality Food Studies Marketing Religious Studies Geography Sociology and Islamic Studies Producing Islamic Knowledge Martin van Bruinessen, 2013-06-17 Featuring contributions from leading sociologists and anthropologists and presenting the findings of empirical research from a range of European countries this book provides a discussion on the production and or reproduction of Islamic knowledge and gives a new perspective on Islam and Muslims in Europe Medieval Islamic Civilization Josef W. Fatwa in Indonesia Pradana Pradana Boy ZTF, 2025-10-01 This book looks at fatwa in Indonesia during the period following the fall of President Suharto It is an in depth exploration of three fatwa making agencies Majelis Ulama Indonesia Lajnah Bahth al Masail Nahdlatul Ulama and Majelis Tarjih Muhammadiyah all of which are highly influential in shaping religious thought and the lives of Muslims in Indonesia Rather than look at all the fatwa that have emerged in the period Pradana Boy ZTF focuses on those that have strong repercussions for intra community relations and the development of Indonesian Muslims more generally including fatwa pertaining to sectarianism pluralism secularism and liberalism

The Bosnian Muslims Francine Friedman, 2018-10-08 Although their plight now dominates television news worldwide the Bosnian Muslims were until recently virtually unknown outside of Yugoslavia This meticulously researched comprehensive book traces the turbulent history of the Bosnian Muslims and shows how their mixed secular and religious identity has shaped the conflict in which they are now so tragically embroiled Although their plight now dominates television news worldwide the Bosnian Muslims were until recently virtually unknown outside of Yugoslavia Who are these people Why are they the focus of their former neighbors rage What role did they play in Yugoslavia before they became the victims of ethnic cleansing Why has Bosnia Hercegovina once a model of ethnic tolerance and multicultural harmony suddenly exploded into ethnic violence Focusing on these questions Friedman provides a comprehensive study of this national group whose plight has riveted governments the press and the public alike With a name reflecting both their religious and their national identity the Bosnian Muslims are unique in Europe as indigenous Slavic Muslims Descendants of schismatic Christians from the Middle Ages they converted to Islam after the Ottoman conquest of Bosnia The book follows them as they went from victims of crusades during the Middle Ages to members of the ruling elite within the Ottoman Empire from rulers back to subjects under Austria Hungary and later subjects again this time under the Serbs in the interwar Yugoslav Kingdom and the Communists after World War II The Bosnian Muslims have survived through it all even thriving during certain periods most notably when they were recognized by Tito as a nation Meticulously tracing their turbulent history and assessing the issues surrounding Bosnian Muslim nationhood in Yugoslavia Friedman shows us how the mixed secular and religious identity of the Bosnian Muslims has shaped the conflict in which they are now so tragically embroiled

Interreligious Hermeneutics in Pluralistic Europe David Cheetham, 2011 At the second major conference held in Salzburg in 2009 of The European Society for Intercultural Theology and Interreligious Studies ESITIS participants probed

the broad theme of interreligious hermeneutics in a pluralistic Europe Due to the phenomenon of an increasingly plural Europe questions arise about how we see each other s cultural heritage religious traditions and sacred scriptures Following the discussions that took place at the conference this book focuses on the usage of texts in our global and mass media world the possibility of scriptural reasoning the theological comparison of selected topics from religious traditions by scholars belonging to multiple religions or interreligious communities of scholars the pragmatics of using sacred texts in social contexts of family and gender polemical attacks on the other s sacred text and the challenge to interreligious hermeneutics of the postcolonial deconstruction of religion by cultural studies The future of interreligious hermeneutics is going to be complex This book exhibits the multiple agendas power gender postcolonialism globalisation dialogue tradition polemics that will have a stake in these future debates Shaping the Future Horst Hutter,2006-01-01 Shaping the Future maps out the ascetic practices of a Neitzschean way of life Hutter argues that Nietzsche s doctrines are attempts and temptations that aim to provoke his free spirited readers into changing themselves by putting philosophy into practice in their lives The Rebirth of the West Peter Duignan,Lewis H. Gann,1996 The years following World War II witnessed perhaps the greatest success story in Western history the economic and political recovery of European democracies that had been devastated by the cataclysmic war Peter Duignan and L H Gann convincingly demonstrate that the deep involvement of the United States was a key factor in this success The Rebirth of the West is a broad narrative analysis of every important aspect of Western society during this formative period political economic social cultural and scientific In addition to providing an interpretive synthesis of the vast literature on the subject the authors make an important and original contribution to both the historical record of this period and current debates over the future of Europe The Islamic Review ,1956 Cultural Awareness Training Mohammad Ismail,2004 This book is the outcome of research into cultural awareness that has spanned over a considerable period of time It will help those who work within education or those working with the Muslim community in general The aim is to provide introduction for non Muslims who would like to know more about Islam and Muslims The book also discuss equal opportunities anti racism multi culturalism educational research and a variety of other topics related to education and training It will be a useful document for all those who would like to know more about these subjects The book was part of a research conducted at The University of Sheffield for an M Ed Programme The language has been simplified in order to make it useful for a wider group of readers Law and Religion in Public Life Nadirsyah Hosen,Richard Mohr,2011-04-27 With religion at centre stage in conflicts worldwide and in social ethical and geo political debates this book takes a timely look at relations between law and religion To what extent can religion play a role in secular legal systems How do peoples of various faiths live successfully by both secular laws as well as their religious laws Are there limits to freedom of religion These questions are related to legal deliberations and broader discussions around secularism multiculturalism immigration settlement and security The book is unique in bringing together leading scholars and respected religious leaders to examine legal theoretical historical and religious aspects of the most pressing social issues of our time In addressing each other s concerns the authors ensure accessibility to interdisciplinary and non specialist audiences scholars and students in social sciences human rights theology and law as well as a broader audience engaged in social political and religious affairs Five of the book s thirteen chapters address specific contemporary issues in Australia one of the most ethnically diverse countries in the world and a pioneer of multicultural policies Australia is a revealing site for contemporary studies in a world afraid of immigration and terrorism The other chapters deal with political legal and ethical issues of global significance In conclusion the editors propose increasing dialogue with and between religions Law may intervene in or guide such dialogue by defending the free exchange of religious ideas by adjudicating disputes over them or by promoting a civil society that negotiates rather than litigates

The Palgrave Handbook of Textbook Studies Eckhardt Fuchs, Annekatrin Bock, 2018-04-04 This volume examines the present status and future trends of textbook studies Cutting edge essays by leading experts and emerging scholars explore the field s theories methodologies and topics with the goal of generating debate and providing new perspectives The Georg Eckert Institute s unique transdisciplinary focus on international textbook research has shaped this handbook which explores the history of the discipline the production processes and contexts that influence textbooks the concepts they incorporate how this medium itself is received and future trends The book maps and discusses approaches based in cultural studies as well as in the social and educational sciences in addition to contemporary methodologies used in the field The book aims to become the central interdisciplinary reference for textbook researchers students and educational practitioners
