International Arbitration in the United States Laurence Shore, Tai-Heng Cheng, Jenella E. La Chuisa, Lawrence Schaner, Mara V.J. Senn, 2016-04-24 International Arbitration in the United States is a comprehensive analysis of international arbitration law and practice in the United States U S Choosing an arbitration seat in the U S is a common choice among parties to international commercial agreements or treaties However the complexities of arbitrating in a federal system and the continuing development of U S arbitration law and practice can be daunting to even experienced arbitrators This book the first of its kind provides parties opting for private justice with vital judicial reassurance on U S courts highly supportive posture in enforcing awards and its pronounced reluctance to intervene in the arbitral process With a nationwide treatment describing both the default forum under federal arbitration law and the array of options to which parties may agree in state courts under state international arbitration statutes this book covers aspects of U S arbitration law and practice as the following institutions and institutional rules that practitioners typically use ethical considerations costs and fees provisional measures and confidentiality There are also chapters on arbitration in specialized areas such as class actions securities construction insurance and intellectual property Beyond Legal

Reasoning: a Critique of Pure Lawyering Jeffrey Lipshaw, 2017-03-27 The concept of learning to think like a lawyer is one of the cornerstones of legal education in the United States and beyond In this book Jeffrey Lipshaw provides a critique of the traditional views of thinking like a lawyer or pure lawyering aimed at lawyers law professors and students who want to understand lawyering beyond the traditional warrior metaphor Drawing on his extensive experience at the intersection of real world law and business issues Professor Lipshaw presents a sophisticated philosophical argument that the pure lawyering of traditional legal education is agnostic to either truth or moral value of outcomes He demonstrates pure lawyering's potential both for illusions of certainty and cynical instrumentalism and the consequences of both when lawyers are called on as dealmakers policymakers and counsellors This book offers an avenue for getting beyond or unlearning merely how to think like a lawyer It combines legal theory philosophy of knowledge and doctrine with an appreciation of real life judgment calls that multi disciplinary lawyers are called upon to make The book will be of great interest to scholars of legal education legal language and reasoning as well as professors who teach both doctrine and thinking and writing skills in the first year law school curriculum and for anyone who is interested in seeking a perspective on thinking like a lawyer beyond the litigation arena Damages in International Investment Law Sergey Ripinsky, Kevin Williams, 2008 The past two decades have seen a rising wave of investor State arbitrations which pose important questions in international law This book addresses one of the least understood and most unpredictable areas in that field the assessment of damages The book is a result of a two year research project carried out at the British Institute of International and Comparative Law and it is the first to examine the subject in a systematic comprehensive and detailed manner Damages in International Investment Law offers a much needed balanced assessment of the complicated and controversial issues arising in relation to compensation awards putting special emphasis on the interpretation and application of international rules on damages by arbitral tribunals In addition to careful analyses of the most recent investment treaty case law other relevant practice both international and national is reviewed Thorough well organized and supplemented by analytical annexes the book will be a valuable reference tool for legal professionals and a practical aide for constructing and resolving damages claims in investment arbitrations
