Inspired by Deliberate Practice, it is filled with exercises called workouts, first with couples EFCT followed by a series of workouts in that same skill or move with individuals EFIT. The workouts are more than skill drills. They are clear, tangible ways for the reader/practitioner to become emotionally engaged within self and in attunement with each client scenario and to strengthen their EFT muscles with the practice of each of these EFT ingredients of change. Part 1 includes workouts of ten micro skills across a wide range of client scenarios including diversity of racial/ethnic gender, sexual orientation, religious neurodiversity, and other contextual diversity. Workouts with the five moves of the EFT Tango from beginning of therapy to the completion of Stage 2 change first with a couple and then with an individual make up Part 2. The reader/practitioner has opportunity in Part 3 to apply the macro intervention to Stages 1 and 2 change in their own lives to explore barriers to following and deepening emotions and to utilize a series of antidotes for typical EFT therapist challenges and goal setting. Containing practical handles for the new clinician or graduate student wanting to integrate EFT into their practice, it is also stimulating and relevant for seasoned therapists and counselors seeking to sharpen EFT skills and develop confidence in the model with both couples and individuals.
