Images of the Anthropocene in Speculative Fiction Tereza Dedinová, Weronika Laszkiewicz, Sylwia

Borowska-Szerszun, 2021-03-01 In order to demonstrate that speculative fiction provides a valuable contribution to the discussion about the challenges of the Anthropocene Images of the Anthropocene in Speculative Fiction investigates a range of novels whose subject matter pertains to various aspects of the Anthropocene These include the destruction and protection of the natural environment the relationship between human and non human inhabitants of the planet the role of myth in the shaping of and combat against the Anthropocene the political dimensions of the Anthropocene the ensuing threat of the Apocalypse and the role of post apocalyptic narratives To explore these topics our authors examine the works of Patricia Briggs M R Carey Dmitry Glukhovsky Ursula K Le Guin N K Jemisin Stephenie Meyer China Miéville James Patterson Maggie Stiefvater J R R Tolkien and Scott Westfield Their essays demonstrate that speculative fiction given its ability to pursue scenarios of alternative history and present familiar things in an unfamiliar way can alter the readers perception of their duties and responsibilities towards their communities and the world so that the threat of human wrought destruction might ultimately be averted Literary Animal Studies and the Climate Crisis Sune Borkfelt, Matthias Stephan, 2022-11-22 Literary Animal Studies and the Climate Crisis connects insights from the field of literary animal studies with the urgent issues of climate change and environmental degradation and features considerations of new interventions by literature in relation to these pressing questions and debates This volume informs academic debates in terms of how nonhuman animals figure in our cultural imagination of topics such as climate change extinction animal otherness the posthuman and environmental crises Using a diverse set of methodologies each chapter presents relevant cases which discuss the various aspects of these interstices This volume is an intersection between literary animal studies and climate fiction intended as an interdisciplinary intervention that speaks to the global climate debate and is thus relevant across the environmental humanities

Entangled and Empowered: Agency in Multispecies Communities Keri Stevenson , 2025-08-19

Entangled and Empowered Agency in Multispecies Communities is a collection that approaches the inevitable reality of entanglement between humans and other beings from a perspective of action and wonder It argues that actors as diverse as bacteria snakes butterflies ducks and cacao trees can help us enact joy in fields as different as art cinema literature and anthropology While acknowledging the imminent reality of climate change the sixth extinction and other overwhelming threats to the Earth this book argues that humans continue to live and so do the beings whose lives are entwined with ours for whom we can acknowledge and work to improve their existence The nine essays in this volume trace that acknowledgment and work through three sections centered on visual media queer and feminist readings of empowerment and movements beyond the boundaries enacted by anthropocentric Western society Drawing on theories such as new materialism posthumanism and ecofeminism and with an international perspective from authors working at American South Asian and East Asian universities Entangled and Empowered finds hope in the shadow of despair It engages with work by Anna Lowenhaupt Tsing on entanglement Donna Haraway on kin making and multispecies communities and Karen Barad on intra actions among others while also showing how critiques of these ideas can make the world both more promising and more endangered This collection will be useful for scholars working in all subfields of environmental humanities especially those intersecting with the theories described above and as an archive of examples analyzing practical aspects of agency in diverse multispecies communities Scholars studying texts as well known as The Handmaid's Tale and as obscure as the codices of the Mopan Maya will find value in having both under one cover

Routledge Handbook of Ecocriticism and Environmental Communication Scott Slovic, Swarnalatha Rangarajan, Vidya Sarveswaran, 2019-02-01 Ecocriticism and environmental communication studies have for many years co existed as parallel disciplines occasionally crossing paths but typically operating in separate academic spheres These fields are now rapidly converging and this handbook aims to reinforce the common concerns and methodologies of the sibling disciplines The Routledge Handbook of Ecocriticism and Environmental Communication charts the history of the relationship between ecocriticism and environmental communication studies while also highlighting key new paradigms in information studies diverse examples of practical applications of environmental communication and textual analysis and the patterns and challenges of environmental communication in non Western societies Contributors to this book include literary film and religious studies scholars communication studies specialists environmental historians practicing journalists art critics linguists ethnographers sociologists literary theorists and others but all focus their discussions on key issues in textual representations of human nature relationships and on the challenges and possibilities of environmental communication The handbook is designed to map existing trends in both ecocriticism and environmental communication and to predict future directions This handbook will be an essential reference for teachers students and practitioners of environmental literature film journalism communication and rhetoric and well as the broader meta discipline of environmental humanities

Fiction and Poetry to Help Us Age Laurence W. Mazzeno, Sue Norton, 2025-09-09 This volume explores the theme of age and aging uniquely combining personal reflections from literature professors with sound scholarly analysis of a range of fiction and poetry Bringing together leading literary scholars this collection of essays covers a range of writers and texts representing both the canon and new voices By combining the chapter authors expertise as literary and cultural critics with their own responses to novels short stories and poems the book offers new insights into the life trajectories made available to fiction and poetry readers through compelling narrative and vivid literary representation

Beyond Safety Emily Johansen, 2021-09-09 Beyond Safety argues that concerns about the ethical impossibility of individual safety in the face of risks with increasingly obvious global consequences alters representations of neoliberal contemporary life As the climate crises in the Caribbean and Australia ongoing European refugee and American border crises and most recently anxieties about Coronavirus illustrate contemporary life is characterized by global connections that produce and reflect precarious outcomes and dangers The ability to ignore risk or shift it to others underscores the fact that it is mitigable for particular segments of society while inescapable for others Emily Johansen investigates depictions of global danger and safety in contemporary transnational fictional and popular texts those characterized by a narrative or representational emphasis on border crossing and global interdependences She demonstrates how these texts use risk to question and re imagine the norms and practices of contemporary global citizenship Beyond Safety thus brings together three of the central keywords of contemporary literary criticism of the last ten years cosmopolitanism precarity neoliberalism and shows how their intersection allows for a fuller conception of contemporary life and imagines a new global future
