Good S For Children:

Educational Goods Harry Brighouse, Helen F. Ladd, Susanna Loeb, Adam Swift, 2018-01-24 This book jointly authored by two distinguished philosophers and two prominent social scientists has an ambitious aim to improve decision making in education policy First they dive into the goals of education policy and explain the terms educational goods and childhood goods adding precision and clarity to the discussion of the distributive values that are essential for good decision making about education Then they provide a framework for individual decision makers that enables them to combine values and evidence in the evaluation of educational policy options Finally they delve into the particular policy issues of school finance school accountability and school choice and they show how decision makers might approach them in the light of this decision making framework The authors are not advocating particular policy choices however The focus instead is a smart framework that will make it easier for policymakers and readers to identify and think through what they disagree with others about
