

A Preschool Goodbye

Sticky fingers, runny noses
Head, shoulders, knees, and toes-es.
Shapes and colors, ABC's,
Taking turns and 123's.

Toothless smiles, hugs, and giggles,
Circle time and lots of wiggles.
Wooden blocks and dress-up clothes,
Learning how a flower grows.

Milk and cookies, first-time friend,
Thinking days like this won't end.
Preschool is done before you know it,
No one sadder than this poet.

Like a butterfly, time has flown,
You have learned and you have grown.
Tiny chairs give way to desks,
Book reports and spelling tests.

So take off now, spread your wings,
Soar to new heights, learn new things.
Just remember, as you do,
Someone's very proud of you!

81 Questions for Parents Kristen J. Amundson, 2021-05-17 As a former teacher, school board chair and state legislator, Kristen J. Amundson has spent decades answering parents' questions about school. 81 Questions for Parents: Helping Your Kids Succeed in School highlights the most important of these questions, covering a child's school journey from preschool to postsecondary education. It includes some of the school secrets parents need to know, the often unwritten rules that can make a child's K-12 experience the best it can be. Should you redshirt your kindergartener and hold them out for a year? How much parent help on homework is too much? And why could playing in the band be a secret to getting your child into a good college? And for parents who are struggling to teach their child at home, there are tips on how to do that while still keeping your sanity and your own job. 81 Questions for Parents combines common sense, research and a little humor to help parents support their child to get the best possible education.
