Z. Gebeda,1975 Decolonisation, Globalisation Angel Lin,Peter Martin,2005-07-04 This volume brings together scholars from around the world to juxtapose the voices of classroom participants alongside the voices of ruling elites with the aim of critically linking language policy issues with classroom practice in a range of contexts The volume is suitable for postgraduate students researchers and educators in a range of areas Language of Instruction in Tanzania and South Africa (LOITASA) Birgit Brock-Utne,Zubeida Desai,Martha Qorro,2003 This book covers research findings on the language and education situations in Tanzania and South Africa It outlines the policies governing language of instruction for education in the two countries and assesses the extent to which existing policies are being implemented It presents the history of the development of language policies in the two countries and considers how they are actually working in practice at classroom level The contributors further consider the economic viabilities of language policies and the necessity to rationalise languages and dialects for education purposes Government Gazette South Africa,1957 The Education Gazette of the Province of the Cape of Good Hope Cape of Good Hope (South Africa). countries as they seek to position themselves in an increasingly interconnected global system while at the same time maintaining a sense of national and regional identity The chapters in this collection reflect both positive outcomes when the medium of instruction is a widely known language as well as the challenges of mother tongue instruction in countries where historically a powerful language like English has dominated The four LOITASA books in this series from which the chapters in this book are drawn are Language of instruction in Tanzania and South Africa LOITASA published by E Zubeida Desai the South African project leader and Martha Qorro who is on the project steering committee in Tanzania
