Death of the Drunkard Anne Louise Bannon, 2023-11-28 One inoffensive drunkard. So many reasons to kill him. A bold shooting ends the life of Mr. Hewitt, the buggy manufacturer, on a cold night in December 1872. Physician and winemaker Maddie Wilcox is particularly puzzled since it was clear that Mr. Hewitt was soon to die of his own dissipation. Nonetheless, she is drawn into searching out his killer by the grieving widow. Maddie soon finds out that there were several people who might have been offended by Mr. Hewitt, including those hoping to bring the Southern Pacific railroad to Los Angeles. As Maddie battles the usual winter colds and her own homesickness, the local men begin vying for her affections. Soon, Maddie realizes that she is searching for a killer determined to win the prize, no matter what the cost.

Death of the Chinese Field Hands Anne Louise Bannon, 2020-09-25 A night of chaos leads to more murders. Physician and winemaker Maddie Wilcox has always despaired of how violent Los Angeles is. But one night in October 1871, the pueblo explodes in a riot, and eighteen Chinese men are lynched. Shaken to her core and frustrated that she couldn't have done more to stop the violence, Maddie throws herself into her work, grateful that her three Chinese field hands were safe on her rancho that most terrible of nights. Until one of them is found strangled in her vineyard. At first, the murder seems like a random act against the scapegoated Chinese. Then a second of the three Chinese hands is murdered in the same way. Is the killer acting out against the Chinese in general, or only those working on Maddie's rancho? And if the latter, what does the killer expect to get A distinctive boot print and a bit of jewelry are all Maddie and her friends have to go on as Maddie continues to battle the usual panoply of injuries and rampant diseases that plague the pueblo Surrounded by prejudice daunted by her own limitations Maddie s hold on her passions starts slipping Can she keep her temper in check long enough to find the killer

Death of the City Marshal Anne Louise Bannon,2019-05-10 It s October 1870 and once again violence has erupted on the streets of Los Angeles This time City Marshal gets into a gunfight with his deputy Joseph Dye and is severely wounded Fortunately winemaker and physician Maddie Wilcox is on the scene to take care of the marshal But the next day she finds that the marshal has been smothered in his bed The morning after the marshal s death red paint is splashed all over the front porch of his home and a list of his sins posted on the front The list of people with grievances against the fiery tempered marshal is long But then another prominent citizen has his sins posted and house front splattered Maddie takes an interest in the vandalism in the hopes of finding Marshal Warren s killer But she soon finds out that she is up against a killer driven by a profound longing and who is prepared to do the worst to keep that most basic of human desires a home

undercover to set up a sting on a group of defense plant employees who are selling secrets It s a case that gets messier by the minute with British intelligence sticking their noses in for an unknown reason and the likelihood that there s a leak connected to Sid and Lisa s FBI supervisor Henry James As usual it s hard for Lisa to say whether the greater danger is to her heart or to her life Deceptive Appearances Anne Louise Bannon,2017-05-22 She was someone no one would suspect Heading for a simple pickup in Stateline Nevada Lisa Wycherly was nervous She and Sid Hackbirn her partner in Operation Quickline had been asked to not hide behind their usual aliases but work as themselves After all Lisa s hometown was just across the state line in South Lake Tahoe and thanks to her good girl reputation in town odds were good no one would pick her as an undercover counter espionage operative But it was Sid who first ran into an old friend from high school his teacher and former lover Della Riordan who was murdered shortly after leaving Sid Then Lisa found a small box filled with cocaine instead of the coded instructions she d been expecting from the pickup Sid got tagged as the main suspect in Riordan s murder and took full advantage of all the women who threw themselves at him as a result With Sid cutting a randy swathe through the female population on both sides of the state line the last thing Lisa needed was her parents coming home early from a trip The only thing worse was finding out that her father s store might be at the center of a drug ring let alone harboring a spy selling secrets to the other side With a crooked cop bent on setting Sid and Lisa up for the murder and an enemy agent spying on them keeping their secret from Lisa s family will be almost as hard as staying out of jail
