Aitken, Andrew Wolvin, 2010-02-16 ICOMM Interpersonal Concepts and Competencies provides an integrated approach to the study of interpersonal communication This accessibly written but authoritative text emphasizes the development of communication competencies including skills understanding of the theory and research that contextualizes the skills to make them relevant to learning and the motivation to put the skills into practice While incorporating many traditional intrapersonal and interpersonal topics found in current texts the book is distinctive in that it offers a skills based approach that is grounded in solid theory and research Students will find that the text is written in a personal and friendly manner stressing concepts skills and applications that should be an important part of their daily lives

A Language of Freedom and Teacher's Authority Fatma Mizikaci, Guy Senese, 2017-05-30 A Language of Freedom and Teacher s Authority Case Comparisons from Turkey and the United States explores dimensions of authority that are deeply embedded in the profession of teaching It examines critical dimensions of the foundations of Turkish and U S public education both of which are under new pressures due to changes in the relationship between public schooling and current reforms in education The contributors reflect on varied dimensions of authority of which ideals are shifting under political and economic pressures In both Turkey and the U S public education reflects the early influence of secular equalitarianism revolutionary democratic developments and an Enlightenment based sense of the human right to education Against this we see the opposing dialectic where state control and curricular censorship and constriction appear too often Learners
