Two weeks later, autumn has begun, and Winnie enjoys the sights and sounds of her forest. The Tucks haven't been found, which makes her happy. She remembers the accident discovering her in the pathless, recalling her for helping them escape but unable to punish her because of her age. Her parents questioned her, and through tears, she explained the worst the Tucks as friends who have defended her, and now other children admire her, making her excited for school.

A spot appears by the fence, followed by a barking dog, ignoring Winnie's cries, the dog barks, but she grabs the food and pulls it inside. Remembering the food was in danger, she strikes the food, sends the dog, and runs to her room. She pours water over the food, thinking of the error would be gone.
