Federal Communications Commission, 1982 Argumentation in Artificial Intelligence Iyad Rahwan, 2009-06-13 Argumentation is all around us Letters to the Editor often make points of consistency and Why is one of the most frequent questions in language asking for reasons behind behaviour And argumentation is more than reasoning in the recesses of single minds since it crucially involves interaction It cements the coordinated social behaviour that has allowed us in small bands of not particularly physically impressive primates to dominate the planet from the mammoth hunt all the way up to organized science This volume puts argumentation on the map in the field of Artificial Intelligence This theme has been coming for a while and some famous pioneers are chapter authors but we can now see a broader systematic area emerging in the sum of topics and results As a logician I find this intriguing since I see AI as logic continued by other means reminding us of broader views of what my discipline is about Logic arose originally out of reflection on many agent practices of disputation in Greek Antiquity but also in India and China And logicians like me would like to return to this broader agenda of rational agency and intelligent interaction Of course Aristotle also gave us a formal systems methodology that deeply influenced the field and eventually connected up happily with mathematical proof and foundations Railroad Reports, 1903 Covers cases decided 1901-1913 The Criteria to Winner: Security and Risk Management for Printed Lottery Hyejung Moon, 2010-06-02 The purpose of this criteria is to provide security control standards for the printed lottery system by providing detailed procedures recommended technologies and related examples for the lottery industry Although WLA covers such topics at a good principle level it is my goal to break them down into further applicable details to help such lottery
