Park Service,1991 Collections Management as Critical Museum Practice Cara Krmpotich,Alice Stevenson,2024-07-22

There is a common misconception that collections management in museums is a set of rote procedures or technical practices that follow universal standards of best practice This volume recognises collections management as a political critical and social project involving considerable intellectual labour that often goes unacknowledged within institutions and in the fields of museum and heritage studies Collections Management as Critical Museum Practice brings into focus the knowledges value systems ethics and workplace pragmatics that are foundational for this work Rather than engaging solely with cultural modifications such as Indigenous care practices the book presents local knowledge of place and material which is relevant to how collections are managed and cared for worldwide Through discussion of varied collection types management activities and professional roles contributors develop a contextualised reflexive practice for how core collections management standards are conceptualised negotiated and enacted Chapters span national museums in Brazil and Uganda to community led heritage work in Malaysia and Canada they explore complexities of numbering digitisation and description alongside the realities of climate change global pandemics and natural disasters The book offers a new definition of collections management travelling from what is done to care for collections to what is done to care for collections and their users Rather than use being an end goal it emerges as a starting point to rethink collections work Collections Management in the National Museums and Galleries of Northern Ireland Great Britain. Northern Ireland Audit Office,2006-06-08 The National Museums and Galleries of Northern Ireland MAGNI created in 1998 brought together the Ulster Museum the Ulster Folk and Transport Museum and the Ulster American Folk Park and it is also responsible for the operation of W5 the first Science Discovery Centre in Ireland opened in 2001 The collection comprises some 1 45 million artefacts and works of art The NIAO examined the structure of MAGNI and the documentation and storage of the collection Since 1994 all acquisitions have been documented to SPECTRUM Standard Procedures for Collections Recording Used in Museums standards an internationally recognised standard for museum documentation Although considerable progress has been made in computerisation less than ten per cent of records are currently computerised NIAO recommends i a key performance indicator covering the percentage of the collection documented to international standards reported annually ii more photographing of important items for records and internet use iii regular physical inspection of a sample of records At present only ten percent of the collection is on display Storage of the remainder in some 50 separate locations was found to be poor or unacceptable in 30 locations although the main stores holding the bulk of the collection are classed as good to excellent NIAO welcomes the storage development plan being created and recommends consideration of a centralized store and performance indicators on storage conditions and internet accessibility to improve public access to the collections Manual of Museum Planning Barry Lord,Gail Dexter Lord,Lindsay Martin,2012 As museums have taken on more complex roles in their communities and the number of museum stakeholders has increased to include a greater array of people effective museum planning is more important than ever The Manual of Museum Planning has become the definitive text for museum professionals trustees architects and others who are concerned with the planning design construction renovation or expansion of a public gallery or museum Rewritten and reorganized the third edition features revised sections on planning for visitors collections and the building itself and new sections on operations and implementation which have become an essential part of the planning process This new edition of the Manual of Museum Planning has been updated to meet the needs of professional museum practice in the 21st century and includes contributions by leading museum professionals This manual is intended to be used as a guide for museum professionals board members or trustees government agencies architects designers engineers cost consultants or other specialist consultants embarking on a capital project expansion renovation or new construction of museum space overnment agencies architects designers engineers cost consultants or other specialist consultants embarking on a capital project expansion renovation or new construction of museum space overnment agencies architects designers engineers cost consultants or other specialist consultants embarking on a capital project expansion renovation or new construction of museum space Handbook for Museums David Dean,Gary Edson,2013-10-28 Handbook for Museums is the definitive guide of need to know information essential for working in the museum world Presenting a field tested guide to best practice the Handbook is formed around a commitment to professionalism in museum practice The sections provide information on management security conservation and education Including technical notes and international reading lists too Handbook for Museusms is an excellent manual for managing and training The Handbook for Museums Gary Edson,David Dean,1996 A definitve guide to best practice in museums at a time in which all museums require ever more innovative solutions to processes of interpreting the world s cultural and scientific heritage Preventive Conservation for Historic House Museums Jane Merritt,Julie A. Reilly,2010-01-16 Preventive Conservation for Historic House Museums is a primer on the preventive care practices that these unique sites need to slow the rate of deterioration and prevent damage and wear to the property and its collections It proposes a collaborative approach to preservation planning that is based on interdisciplinary research critical thinking and observation rather than rote maintenance schedules and everyday residential cleaning practices The authors recommend that sites have documents and plans in place that direct the intellectual and physical control of the collections and site The intellectual controls include administrative and management policies and procedures the physical controls include security and safety precautions routine maintenance and cleaning practices among others Historic house administrators staff board members and volunteers will find this volume indispensable Professionals who deal with historic sites from the museum administrator or curator to architect to engineer as well as students pursuing studies in the field of preservation and conservation will also find this a valuable reference This volume promotes a pro active approach to preservation planning for
