Museums And Memory:

Museums and Memory Susan A. Crane, 2000 This volume considers museums from personal experience and historical study and from the memories of museum visitors curators and scholars Representing a variety of fields the essays range widely over time and place in exhibitions explored and types of institutions

Museums and Sites of Persuasion Joyce Apsel, Amy Sodaro, 2019-10-14 Museums and Sites of Persuasion examines the concept of museums and memory sites as locations that attempt to promote human rights democracy and peace Demonstrating that such sites have the potential to act as powerful spaces of persuasion or contestation the book also shows that there are perils in the selective memory and history that they present Examining a range of museums memorials and exhibits in places as varied as Burundi Denmark Georgia Kosovo Mexico Peru Vietnam and the US this volume demonstrates how they represent and try to come to terms with difficult histories As sites of persuasion the contributors to this book argue their public goal is to use memory and education about the past to provide moral lessons to visitors that will encourage a more democratic and peaceful future However the case studies also demonstrate how political economic and social realities often undermine this lofty goal raising questions about how these sites of persuasion actually function on a daily basis Straddling several interdisciplinary fields of research and study Museums and Sites of Persuasion will be essential reading for those working in the fields of museum studies memory studies and genocide studies It will also be essential reading for museum practitioners and anyone engaged in the study of history sociology political science anthropology and art history Chapter 3 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license

Dream Spaces Gaynor Kavanagh, 2000-04-01 The dream space writes Sheldon Annis is the reflective experience of encountering yourself within a museum In Memory and the Museum Gaynor Kavanaugh argues that dream spaces are the point at which our inner and outer experiences meld During the museum visit memory and the present cease to be disparate but fuse into one singular experience Drawing from such fields as behavioral gerontology applied psychology and historiography Kavanaugh employs research from North America Australia and Europe to provide a critical and conceptual exploration into museums and the mind

Defining Memory Amy K. Levin, 2007-03-01 Defining Memory uses case studies of exhibits from around the country to examine how local museums defined as museums whose collections are local in scope or whose audiences are primarily local have both shaped and been shaped by evolving community values and sense of history Levin and her contributors argue that these small institutions play a key role in defining America's self identity and should be studied as seriously as more national institutions like the Smithsonian and the Metropolitan Museum of Art

Museums, Emotion, and Memory Culture Gönül Bozoğlu, 2019-09-18 Museums Emotion and Memory Culture examines the politics of emotion in history museums combining approaches and concerns from museum heritage and memory studies anthropology and studies of emotion Exploring the meanings and politics of memory contests in

Turkey a site for complex negotiations of identity the book asks what it means for museums to charge the past with political agendas through spectacular emotive representations Providing an in depth examination of emotional practice in two Turkish museums that present contrasting representations of the national past the book analyses relationships between memory governmentality identity and emotion The museums discussed celebrate Ottoman and Early Republican pasts linking to geo and party politics people s senses of who they are popular memory culture and competing national stories and identities vis vis Europe and the wider world Both museums use dramatic emotive panoramas as key displays and the research at the heart of this book explores this seemingly anachronistic choice and how it links with memory cultures to prompt visitors to engage imaginatively socially politically and morally with a particular version of the past Although the book focuses on museums in Turkey it uses this as a platform to address broader questions about memory culture emotion and identity As such Museums and Memory Culture should be of great interest to academics and students around the world who are engaged in the study of museums heritage culture history politics anthropology sociology and the psychology of emotion

Mediating Memory in the Museum S. Arnold-de-Simine,Silke Arnold-de Simine,2013-10-16 Mediating Memory in the Museum is a contribution to an emerging field of research that is situated at the interface between memory studies and museum studies It highlights the role of museums in the proliferation of the so called memory boom as well as the influence of memory discourses on international trends in museum cultures

Holocaust Memory and National Museums in Britain Emily-Jayne Stiles,2021-11-16 This book explores the Holocaust exhibition opened within the Imperial War Museum IWM in 2000 setting out the long and often contentious debates surrounding the conception design and finally the opening of an important exhibition within a national museum in Britain It considers a process of memory making through an assessment of Holocaust photographs material culture and survivor testimonies exploring theories of cultural memory as they apply to the national museum context Anchored in time and place the Holocaust exhibition within Britain s national museum of war is influenced by and reflects an international rise in Holocaust consciousness in the 1990s This book considers the construction of Holocaust memory in 1990s Britain providing a foundation for understanding current and future national memory projects Through all aspects of the display the Holocaust is presented as meaningful in terms of what it says about Nazism and what this in turn says about Britishness From the original debates surrounding the inclusion of a Holocaust gallery at the IWM to the acquisition of Holocaust artefacts that could act as concrete evidence of Nazi barbarity and criminality the Holocaust reaffirms an image of Britain that avoids critical self reflection despite raising uncomfortably close questions The various display elements are brought together to consider multiple strands of the Holocaust story as it is told by national museums in Britain

Museums, Memory, Metaphor Thomas Spencer Cowen,1983

Places of Public Memory Greg Dickinson,Carole Blair,Brian L. Ott,2010-08-02 Though we live in a time when memory seems to be losing its hold on communities memory remains central to personal communal and national identities And although popular and public discourses from speeches to films invite a shared sense of the past official sites of memory such as memorials museums and battlefields embody unique rhetorical principles Places of Public Memory The Rhetoric of Museums and Memorials is a sustained and rigorous consideration of the intersections of memory place and rhetoric From the mnemonic systems inscribed upon ancient architecture to the roadside acci The Routledge Handbook of Translation and Memory Sharon Deane-Cox, Anneleen Spiessens, 2022-05-29 The Routledge Handbook of Translation and Memory serves as a timely and unique resource for the current boom in thinking around translation and memory The Handbook offers a comprehensive overview of a contemporary and as yet unconsolidated research landscape with a four section structure which encompasses both current debate and future trajectories Twenty four chapters written by leading and emerging international scholars provide a cross sectional snapshot of the diverse angles of approach and case studies that have thus far driven research into translation and memory A valuable far reaching range of theoretical empirical reflective comparative and archival approaches are brought to bear on translational sites of memory and mnemonic sites of translation through the examination of topics such as traumatic postcolonial cultural literary and translator memory This Handbook is key reading for advanced undergraduates postgraduates and researchers in translation studies memory studies and related areas Agonistic Memory and the Legacy of 20th Century Wars in Europe Stefan Berger, Wulf Kansteiner, 2022-01-02 This book discusses the merits of the theory of agonistic memory in relation to the memory of war After explaining the theory in detail it provides two case studies one on war museums in contemporary Europe and one on mass graves exhumations which both focus on analyzing to what extent these memory sites produce different regimes of memory Furthermore the book provides insights into the making of an agonistic exhibition at the Ruhr Museum in Essen Germany It also analyses audience reaction to a theatre play scripted and performed by the Spanish theatre company Micomicion that was supposed to put agonism on stage There is also an analysis of a Massive Open Online Course MOOC designed and delivered on the theory of agonistic memory and its impact on the memory of war Finally the book provides a personal review of the history problems and accomplishments of the theory of agonistic memory by the two editors of the volume Museums Journal Elijah Howarth, F. Hubbell, Natsuko Akagawa, Sol Rojas-Lizana, Annie Pohlman, 2020-10-31 This volume explores the relationship between place traumatic memory and narrative Drawing on cases from Africa Asia Europe Oceania and North and South America the book provides a uniquely cross cultural and global approach Covering a wide range of cultural and linguistic contexts the volume is divided into three parts memorial spaces sites of trauma and traumatic representations The contributions explore how acknowledgement of past suffering is key to the complex inter relationship between the politics of memory expressions of victimhood and collective memory Contributors take note of differing aspects of memorial culture such as those embedded in war memorials mass grave sites and exhibitions as well as journalistic literary and visual forms of commemorations to investigate how narratives of memory can give meaning and form to places of trauma Mediating Memory in the Museum S.

Arnold-de-Simine,Silke Arnold-de Simine,2013-10-16 Mediating Memory in the Museum is a contribution to an emerging field of research that is situated at the interface between memory studies and museum studies It highlights the role of museums in the proliferation of the so called memory boom as well as the influence of memory discourses on international trends in museum cultures Museums, Narratives, and Critical Histories Kerstin Barndt,Stephan Jaeger,2024-03-04 In response to systemic racism and institutions implications in histories of colonialism nationalism and exclusion museum curators have embraced new ways of storytelling to face entangled memories and histories Critical museum practices have consciously sought to unsettle established forms of representation break with linear narratives of progress and experiment with new modes of multivocal multimedia and subjective storytelling The volume features analyses of narratives and narration in museums and heritage institutions today as well as visions for future museum practices on a local regional national transnational and global scale It is divided into three sections Narrative Theory and Temporality Ruptures and Repair and Difficult Memories and Histories Essays from a variety of disciplines in the humanities and social sciences examine museum practices in history memorial anthropological and art museums across six continents They develop narratological categories reflect on immersive and virtual narratives challenge colonial violence and hegemonic forms of representation query the performance of heritage parse exhibition design and unearth techniques to express narratives of social justice Feminist

Pedagogy Meral Akkent,S. Nehir Kovar,2019-10-15 What role does feminist pedagogy play in transforming social memory How are feminist theory and the debates in the feminist movement reflected in the field of social memory What feminist pedagogical approaches are being developed in women s and gender museums and sites of memory and how are they implemented All these and similar questions are discussed in the book Feminist Pedagogy Museums Memory Sites Practices of Remembrance It includes examples of feminist pedagogical practice from ten countries illustrating approaches of women s museums to find answers to the question of what relationship there is between public forgetting remembering and diversity

Museum Learning Jill Hohenstein,Theano Moussouri,2017-10-16 As museums are increasingly asked to demonstrate not only their cultural but also their educational and social significance the means to understand how museum visitors learn becomes ever more important And yet learning can be conceptualised and investigated in many ways Coming to terms with how theories about learning interact with one another and how they relate to evidence based learning can be confusing at best Museum Learning attempts to make sense of multiple learning theories whilst focusing on a set of core learning topics in museums Importantly learning is considered not just as a cognitive characteristic as some perspectives propose but also as affective taking into consideration interests attitudes and emotions and as a social practice situated in cultural contexts This book draws attention to the development of theory and its practical applications in museum situations such as aquariums zoos botanical gardens and historical re enactment sites among others This volume will be of interest to museum studies students practitioners and researchers working in informal learning contexts and will help them to reflect on what it means to learn in museums and create more effective environments for learning

Towards an Understanding of Kurdistan Memory Culture Bareez Majid, 2023-12-20 This book presents a thorough analysis of the Kurdistan Region of Iraq's memory culture focusing particularly on commemorations and representations of the Anfal and Halabja atrocities The author employs a transdisciplinary approach that draws on Memory Studies Postcolonial Studies Heritage Studies Kurdish Studies Literary Studies and Trauma Studies to analyze cultural objects such as Kurdistan literary novels museums and school curricula The book introduces two key concepts the phantomic museum and the apostrophic museum The former explores the fragile and politicized nature of memories of missing individuals who disappeared during Saddam Hussein's genocidal campaigns and who have never been found primarily as they return in the Halabja Monument and Peace Museum The latter examines how the addressing apostrophizing of Kurdistan in and by the Amna Suraka museum in the city of Sulaymaniyah institutionalizes official and highly politicized versions of the past

Museum Memories Didier Maleuvre, 1999 The author shows how museum culture offers a unique vantage point on the 19th and 20th centuries preoccupation with history and subjectivity and demonstrates how the constitution of the aesthetic provides insight into the realms of technology industrial culture architecture and ethics

Museum Frictions Ivan Karp, 2006-12-07 This third volume in a bestselling series on culture society and museums examines the effects of globalization on contemporary museum heritage and exhibition practices
