Schwartz-Kates, 2011-05-03 Alberto Ginastera A Research and Information Guide is the first bio bibliographic study of the composer and the only published book on the subject in English This work fills a critical gap in contemporary music studies by enriching our knowledge of one of the most compelling creative voices of the Americas Given the lack of prior systematic attention to Ginastera this book establishes a firm foundation for future scholarship It includes a detailed biographical sketch of the composer that quotes extensively from his letters It summarizes the defining features of his style and encompasses his infrequently explored late works It offers the most comprehensive catalogue of Ginastera's music to date and provides an annotated list of his published writings This book contains over 400 annotated bibliographic entries that refer to critically selected sources in English Spanish French German and Italian The last chapter offers new information about archival holdings and internet resources that facilitates research on this composer An appendix featuring a detailed chronology of Ginastera's career completes this work A Yankee Musician in Europe Lowell Mason, 1990 By the middle of the nineteenth century Lowell Mason 1792-1872 was probably the most famous native born musician in America Concentrating almost exclusively on vocal music he built a spectacular reputation as a choir director and teacher He published many collections of sacred music that sold in unprecedented numbers and made him a household name In 1837 he traveled to Europe on a little publicized trip This was a bold move decades before such trips by American musicians became commonplace and his diaries from this time are a primary source of information on early nineteenth century European music This edition of Mason's 1837 journal has been carefully edited throughout Broyles has attempted to reproduce the original manuscript faithfully making adjustments only where necessary for intelligibility Appendices include a list names with brief biographies an itinerary of the tour and those letters received during the trip that still survive An introduction completes this unique and highly readable volume Michael Broyles is Distinguished Professor of Music and Professor of American History Emeritus at Penn State University and Visiting Professor at Florida State University Fodor's Jet Age Guide to Europe,1959 Musical Digest ,1926
