LeRoy and Donald J Trump Bunk traces the history of the hoax as a peculiarly American phenomenon examining what motivates hucksters and makes the rest of us so gullible Disturbingly Young finds that fakery is woven from stereotype and suspicion race being the most insidious American hoax of all He chronicles how Barnum came to fame by displaying figures like Joice Heth a black woman whom he pretended was the 161 year old nursemaid to George Washington and What Is It an African American man Barnum professed was a newly discovered missing link in evolution Bunk then turns to the hoaxing of history and the ways that forgers plagiarists and journalistic fakers invent backstories and falsehoods to sell us lies about themselves and about the world in our own time from pretend Native Americans Grey Owl and Nasdijj to the deadly imposture of Clark Rockefeller from the made up memoirs of James Frey to the identity theft of Rachel Dolezal In this brilliant and timely work Young asks what it means to live in a post factual world of truthiness where everything is up for interpretation and everyone is subject to a pervasive cynicism that damages our ideas of reality fact and art Who's Who? Maggie Nolan, Carrie Dawson, 2004 Brings together for the first time essays that consider a range of high profile cases of literary hoaxing identity crisis or imposture in Australian literature Critics explore the history of hoaxing and imposture and consider the cultural and political issues at stake Nolan at Australian Catholic University Travel Writing from Black Australia Robert Clarke, 2015-11-19 Over the past thirty years the Australian travel experience has been Aboriginized Aboriginality has been appropriated to furnish the Australian nation with a unique and identifiable tourist brand This is deeply ironic given the realities of life for many Aboriginal people in Australian society On the one hand Aboriginality in the form of artworks literature performances landscapes sport and famous individuals is celebrated for the way it blends exoticism mysticism multiculturalism nationalism and reconciliation On the other hand in the media cinema and travel writing Aboriginality in the form of the lived experiences of Aboriginal people has been exploited in the service of moral panic patronized in the name of white benevolence or simply ignored For many travel writers this irony the clash between different regimes of valuing Aboriginality is one of the great challenges to travelling in Australia Travel Writing from Black Australia examines the ambivalence of contemporary travelers engagements with Aboriginality Concentrating on a period marked by the rise of discourses on Aboriginality championing indigenous empowerment self determination and reconciliation the author analyses how travel to Black Australia has become for many travelers a means of discovering new and potentially transformative styles of interracial engagement Odyssey Down Under: Bonnie Scotland James Gardner, 2025-01-28 After Captain Mobley takes James and Leilani on two extensive trips to Scotland in search of his roots he still questions exactly where he comes from For the crew and all it s a wonderful journey in two parts a tour of Scotland s history and a second tour by sea He finds his roots tracing back to a Highland chieftain clan but what about the Viking generation So in part 3 he sets off to the Northland in quest of the Vikings Does his search end well You will have to come aboard the Sheila II with Captain Mobley and the gang Enjoy the journey Scotland and a final surprise I guarantee you will get your sea legs

Explorer Travellers and Adventure Tourism Jennifer Laing, Warwick Frost, 2014-08-01 This book examines the nexus between exploring and tourism and argues that exploration travel based heavily on explorer narratives and the promises of personal challenges and change is a major trend in future tourism In particular it analyses how romanticised myths of explorers form a foundation for how modern day tourists view travel and themselves Its scope ranges from the Golden Age of imperial explorers in the 19th and early 20th centuries through the growth of adventure and extreme tourism to possible future trends including space travel The volume should appeal to researchers and students across a variety of disciplines including tourism studies sociology geography and history

Finding Eliza Larissa Behrendt, Fiona Foley, 2024-06-04 Aboriginal lawyer writer and filmmaker Larissa Behrendt has long been fascinated by the story of Eliza Fraser who was purportedly captured by the Butchulla people after she was shipwrecked on their island off the Queensland coast in 1836 In this deeply personal book Behrendt uses Eliza s tale as a starting point to interrogate how Aboriginal people and indigenous people of other countries have been portrayed in their colonisers stories Exploring works as diverse as Robinson Crusoe and Coonardoo Behrendt looks at the stereotypes embedded in these accounts including the assumption of cannibalism and the myth of the noble savage Ultimately Finding Eliza shows how these stories not only reflect the values of their storytellers but also reinforce those values and how in Australia this has contributed to a complex racial divide
