The Occult Imagination in Britain, 1875-1947 Christine Ferguson,Andrew Radford,2017-12-15 Between 1875 and 1947 a period bookended respectively by the founding of the Theosophical Society and the death of notorious occultist celebrity Aleister Crowley Britain experienced an unparalleled efflorescence of engagement with unusual occult schema and supernatural phenomena such as astral travel ritual magic and reincarnationism Reflecting the signal array of responses by authors artists actors impresarios and popular entertainers to questions of esoteric spirituality and belief this interdisciplinary collection demonstrates the enormous interest in the occult during a time typically associated with the rise of secularization and scientific innovation The contributors describe how the occult realm functions as a turbulent conceptual and affective space shifting between poles of faith and doubt the sacrosanct and the profane the endemic and the exotic the forensic and the fetishistic Here occultism emerges as a practice and epistemology that decisively shapes the literary enterprises of writers such as Dion Fortune and Arthur Machen artists such as Pamela Colman Smith and revivalists such as Rolf Gardiner

Radio Psychics John Benedict Buescher,2021-08-24 When radio broadcasting began in the early 1920s the radio was a magic box aglow with the future drawing humanity into a new age Some thought it would dissolve the distance between time and place others that human minds would become transparent one tuned to another Performers claiming psychic powers turned radio broadcasting into a fabulous money machine These mentalists born from vaudeville circuses sideshows and the Spiritualist and New Thought movements of the mid late 19th century used the language of wireless technology to explain their ability to see the past present and future Casting their mystical knowledge as a scientifically honed craft these mentalists persuaded millions to pay for dubious advice until governmental and public pressures forced them off the air This book is a history of over 25 performers who practiced their art behind studio microphones during the early years of radio broadcasting from about 1920 to 1940 Here laid out for the first time is the tale of how they made cash rain from the heavens and harnessed the sensation of the radio in search of wealth health love and success
