confrontation of the dominant ruling hermeneutic of authority with a Christian hermeneutic of resistance This highlights the brokenness of the human condition manifested by the church in the drunkenness of the disciples the speaking in other tongues the baptism with the Spirit the empowerment of the flesh and its public witness to a scandalized world The effects of the scandal transform both the disciples individual and communal witness and their public recognition as the church Through the lens of a symbolic hermeneutic the public witness of the church at Pentecost reveals a Christian scandal of anthropological proportions with the outpouring of the Spirit on all flesh the church emerges as the symbol of humanity

The Kingdom of Heaven Jesse Henry Jones, 1871      Letters, 1929      Behold the Man Colleen Conway, 2008-05-07 In this book Colleen Conway looks at the construction of masculinity in New Testament depictions of Jesus She argues that the New Testament writers necessarily engaged the predominant gender ideology of the Roman Empire whether consciously or unconsciously Although the notion of what constituted ideal masculinity in Greek and Roman cultures certainly pre dated the Roman Empire the emergence of the Principate concentrated this gender ideology on the figure of the emperor Indeed critical to the success of the empire was the portrayal of the emperor as the ideal man and the Roman citizen as one who aspired to be the same Any person who was held up alongside the emperor as another source of authority would be assessed in terms of the cultural values represented in this Roman image of the manly man Conway examines a variety of ancient ideas of masculinity as found in philosophical discourses medical treatises imperial documents and ancient inscriptions Manliness in these accounts was achieved through self control over passions such as lust anger and greed It was also gained through manly displays of courage the endurance of pain and death on behalf of others With these texts as a starting point Conway shows how the New Testament writings approach Jesus gender identity From Paul's early letters to the Gospels and Acts to the book of Revelation Christian writings in the Bible confront the potentially emasculating scandal of the cross and affirm Jesus as ideally masculine Conway's study touches on such themes as the relationship between divinity and masculinity the role of the body in relation to gender identity and belief in Jesus as a means of achieving a more ideal form of masculinity This impeccably researched and highly readable book reveals the importance of ancient gender ideology for the interpretation of Christian texts      A Performance Cosmology Judie Christie, 2013-03-07 Exploring thirty years of work by The Centre for Performance Research CPR A Performance Cosmology explores the future challenges of performance and theatre through a diverse and fascinating series of interviews testimonies and perspectives from leading international theatre practitioners and academics Contributors include Philip Auslander Rustom Bharucha Tim Etchells Jane Goodall Guillermo Gomez Pena Jon McKenzie Claire MacDonald Susan Melrose Alphonso Lingis Richard Schechner Rebecca Schneider Edward Scheer and Freddie Rokem A Performance Cosmology is structured as a travelogue through a matrix of strategic imaginary interdisciplinary field stations This innovative framework enables readings which disrupt linearity and afford different forms of thematic engagement The resulting volume opens entirely new vistas on the old new and as yet unimagined worlds of performance      Mythology, the Science of Myth Traumear,2018-03-03 The spirit today is myth and myth is the spirit Today is not a day that will one day be yesterday but today is the day in which we live now and we are live today not extinct World as mythology reveals its innermost secrets and this is in fact the use of mythology that it leads us gently and persuasively to the heart of that realm where everything that is wanted may be gained merely by asking for it Also it teaches us how to ask so that we do not waste time and energy asking for wind when we want power and asking for flame when we want warmth or heat Far too many of us have made up our minds as to the means to happiness and we ask for those means instead of asking for happiness So it matters a great deal how we prepare ourselves for the times ahead The worst scenario is not to love and then not to know we are loved because then we have no myth as nourishment and none to protect us Myth nourishes it repairs sustains and increases when we love nonetheless      Report Ontario.
