Changing Genre Conventions in Historical English News Discourse Birte Bös, Lucia Kornexl, 2015-07-15 This volume explores the dynamics of genre conventions in historical English news discourse The contributions cover a wide spectrum of news writing and publication formats from corantos to modern tabloids from prototypical hard news stories and crime reports to more specialised genres such as medical and scientific news advertisements death notices and spoof news Investigating linguistic pragmatic and social factors the authors trace the triggers mechanisms and agents of change that have shaped genre conventions in historical news discourse from the 17th century to the present day Death Liturgy and Ritual Paul P. J. Sheppy, 2003 At the beginning of the twenty first century the Christian Church continues to minister to the dying and the bereaved However it does so in a rapidly changing world The traditional understandings of death and life after death are challenged by the disciplines of medicine the law philosophy psychology and anthropology This two volume study of Christian funerary theology and practice is written from the author s direct experience of conducting funerals and of drafting liturgical resources for others In Volume I Dr Sheppy argues that the Church ought to construct its theological agenda in dialogue with other fields of study He argues for a Christian statement about death that finds its basis in the Paschal Mystery since human death must be explained by reference to Jesus death descent to the dead and resurrection Volume II reviews a wide range of current Christian funeral rites and examines how they reflect both the Church s concern for the death and resurrection of Christ and the contemporary secular demand for funerals which celebrate the life of the deceased The Churchman ,1895 The United States Army and Navy Journal and Gazette of the Regular and Volunteer Forces ,1885
