

Then, all the frogs went up on the log and did the same. This enjoyment continued for several days. The frogs didn't care about their new king log lying there. Their lives were still the same. There was still no law in the swamp and the frogs still did whatever they wanted.

So, the elders decided to go to Jupiter again. They all said to him, "We want a real king, one that will rule over us." This request angered Jupiter and this time he sent them a big stork.

As soon as the stork landed on the log, all the frogs gathered to welcome the new king. The stork didn't waste a minute. It gobbled up all the frogs quickly. The frogs didn't even have time to repent.
