Language of Instruction in Tanzania and South Africa - Highlights from a Project , 2010-01-01 This book is based on chapters in a series of four books from the first five years 2002 2006 of the Language of Instruction in Tanzania and South Africa LOITASA project. LOITASA is a NUFU funded Norwegian University Fund project which began in January 2002 and will continue through to the end of 2011. The chapters reflect the state of the research at the end of the first five years of LOITASA in 2006 and were selected by reviewers independent of the project. The selection of chapters brought together bring to the forefront the dilemmas facing developing countries as they seek to position themselves in an increasingly interconnected global system while at the same time maintaining a sense of national and regional identity. The chapters in this collection reflect both positive outcomes when the medium of instruction is a widely known language as well as the challenges of mother tongue instruction in countries where historically a powerful language like English has dominated. The four LOITASA books in this series from which the chapters in this book are drawn are Language of instruction in Tanzania and South Africa LOITASA published by E Zubeida Desai the South African project leader and Martha Qorro who is on the project steering committee in Tanzania.

which have triggered rising working class discontent around the country the ANC announced a second phase of the national democratic revolution to deal with the challenges Ironically the ANC post Mangaung has resolved to preserve the core tenets of the minerals energy financial complex that defined racial capitalism while at the same time ratcheting up the revolutionary rhetoric to keep the working class and marginalised onside If the first phase was a tragedy of the unmet expectations of the majority is the second phase likely to be a farce The chapters in this volume are written by experts in their fields and address issues of politics power and social class economy ecology and labour public policy and social practice and South Africa beyond its borders They examine some of these challenges and indicate that they are as much about the defective content of policies as their poor implementation The third volume of the New South African Review continues the series by providing in depth analyses of the key issues facing the country today Tests in Print Oscar Krisen Buros, 1983
