House Of Day House Of Night By Olga Tokarczuk:

House of Day, House of Night Olga Tokarczuk, 2002 The English debut of one of Poland's most popular contemporary writers

Polish Literature in Transformation Ursula Phillips, 2013 This volume emerged from the conference Polish Literature Since 1989 held at the University College London School of Slavonic and East European Studies It shows how the profound political and economic transformation that has taken place in Poland since the end of communism in 1989 has affected literary culture and literary scholarship such as changing conceptions of Polish nationhood and identity the impact of European integration since 2004 the effects of migration revised conceptions of the foreign or the marginal and new understandings of what is understood by emigre or emigrant literature sensitivity to issues of gender and sexual identity as well as the impact of feminism and queer studies the huge impact of revived interest in the Jewish heritage in Holocaust memory and in Polish Jewish relations Series Polonistik im Kontext Vol 2

New Women's Writing in Russia, Central and Eastern Europe Rosalind Marsh, 2020-12-07 Since the late 1980s there has been an explosion of women's writing in Russia Central and Eastern Europe greater than in any other cultural period This book which contains contributions by scholars and writers from many different countries aims to address the gap in literature and debate that exists in relation to this subject We investigate why women's writing has become so prominent in post socialist countries and enquire whether writers regard their gender as a burden or on the contrary as empowering We explore the relationship in contemporary women's writing between gender class and nationality as well as issues of ethnicity and post colonialism

The Novel Cure Ella Berthoud, Susan Elderkin, 2014-12-30 Delightful elegant prose and discussions that span the history of 2 000 years of literature Publisher's Weekly A novel is a story transmitted from the novelist to the reader It offers distraction entertainment and an opportunity to unwind or focus But it can also be something more powerful a way to learn about how to live Read at the right moment in your life a novel can quite literally change it The Novel Cure is a reminder of that power To create this apothecary the authors have trawled two thousand years of literature for novels that effectively promote happiness health and sanity written by brilliant minds who knew what it meant to be human and wrote their life lessons into their fiction Structured like a reference book readers simply look up their ailment be it agoraphobia boredom or a midlife crisis and are given a novel to read as the antidote Bibliotherapy does not discriminate between pains of the body and pains of the head or heart Aware that you've been cowardly Pick up To Kill a Mockingbird for an injection of courage Experiencing a sudden acute fear of death Read One Hundred Years of Solitude for some perspective on the larger cycle of life Nervous about throwing a dinner party Ali Smith's There but for The will convince you that yours could never go that wrong Whatever your condition the prescription is simple a novel or two to be read at regular intervals and in nice long chunks until you finish Some treatments will lead to a complete cure Others will offer solace showing that you're not the first to experience these emotions The Novel Cure is also peppered with useful lists and sidebars recommending the best novels to read when you're stuck in traffic or can't fall asleep the most important novels to read during every decade of life and many more Brilliant in concept and deeply satisfying in execution The Novel Cure belongs on everyone's bookshelf and in every medicine cabinet It will make even the most well-read fiction aficionado pick up a novel he's never heard of and see familiar ones with new eyes Mostly it will reaffirm literature's ability to distract and transport to resonate and reassure to change the way we see the world and our place in it This appealing and helpful read is guaranteed to double the length of a to-read list and become a go-to reference for those unsure of their reading identities or who are overwhelmed by the sheer number of books in the world Library Journal Globalization and Sense-Making Practices Simi Malhotra, Zahra Rizvi, Shraddha A. Singh, 2023-09-11 This book presents a critical analysis of sense-making practices through an exploration of acoustic creative and artistic spaces It studies how local cultures of sight hearing smell taste and touch are impacted by global discourses and media such as television popular music digital media and literature The authors look at sense-making practices and spatial discourses through an interconnected discussion on thought and experience that seeks to present a multidimensional cartography of the global the local and the glocal to closely analyze the phenomenon of globalization The volume is an investigation of the possibilities of alternate sustainable modes of being and existing in a world which requires a unified ethical biopolitical worldview that challenges the disparity of its fragments while speculating on their synesthetic conditionality A unique contribution the book will be of interest to scholars and researchers of English literature media studies cultural studies literary cultures post-colonial studies globalization studies philosophy critical theory sociology and social anthropology

Przekładaniec, 2 (2010) vol 24 - English Version, Reading Matters Ulrich Marzolph, 2023 The present book is a special gift for a special colleague and friend Defined as an Unfestschrift it gives colleagues students and friends of Regina Bendix an opportunity to express their esteem for Regina's inspiration cooperation leadership and friendship in an adequate and lasting manner The title of the present book Reading Matters is as close as possible to an English equivalent of the beautiful German double entendre Erlesenes meaning both something read a reading and something exquisite Presenting matters for reading the Unfestschrift unites short contributions about readings that mattered in some way or another for the contributors readings that had an impact on their understanding of whatever they were at some time or presently are interested in The term readings is understood widely Since most of the invited contributors are academics the term implies in the first place readings of an academic or scholarly nature In a wider notion however readings also refer to any other piece of literature the perception of a piece of art a painting a sculpture a performance listening to music appreciating a folkloric performance or a fieldwork experience or just anything else whose reading or individual perception has been meaningful for the contributors in different ways Contrary to a strictly scholarly treatment of a given topic in which the author often disappears behind the subject the presentations unveil and highlight the contributor's personal involvement and thus a dimension of crucial importance for ethnographers such as the dedicatee Soft Living Architecture Rachel

Armstrong,2018-09-06 Soft Living Architecture explores the invention of new architectures based on living processes It crafts a unique intersection between two fast developing disciplines biomimicry and biodesign in architecture and bioinformatics and natural computing in the natural sciences This is the first book to examine both the theory and methodology of architecture and design working directly with the natural world It explores a range of approaches from the use of life like systems in building design to the employment of actual growing and living cell and tissue cultures as architectural materials creating architecture that can change learn and grow with us The use of living architecture is cutting edge and speculative yet it is also inspiring a growing number of designers worldwide to adopt alternative perspectives on sustainability and environmental design The book examines the ethical and theoretical issues arising alongside case studies of experimental practice to explore what we mean by natural in the Anthropocene and raise deep questions about the nature of design and the design of nature This provocative and at times controversial book shows why it will become ever more necessary to embrace living processes in architecture if we are to thrive in a sustainable future Reading the Environment Dominika Oramus,2025-09-04 Reading the Environment Olga Tokarczuk s Fiction aims at analysing the dynamics of reading fiction in the context of accelerating climate change This volume proposes an environment oriented model of reading and applies it to a well defined corpus all existing English translations of Olga Tokarczuk s fiction These are Primeval and Other Times House of Day House of Night Drive Your Plow Over the Bones of the Dead Flights The Books of Jacob and The Empusium Removed from the immediate cultural context of a single author these novels give a representative sample of contemporary literature read by Anglophone people of diverse national backgrounds who live in different localities but share one endangered planet whether they realise it or not The book charts five ways in which our reading protocols have shifted the way of interconnectedness the way of naturecultures the way of sympoiesis the way of Earth Island and the way of the beginning of the Anthropocene This book is written for an academic audience postgraduates researchers and academics specializing in Environmental Humanities Ecocriticism World Literature Post Modern Literature and Climate Fiction Translating Values Piotr Blumczynski,John Gillespie,2016-06-30 This collection explores the central importance of values and evaluative concepts in cross cultural translational encounters Written by a group of international scholars from a diverse range of linguistic and cultural backgrounds the chapters in this book consider what it means to translate cultures by examining core values and their relationship to key evaluative concepts such as authenticity clarity home honour or justice and how they influence the complex multidimensional process of translation This book will be of interest to academics studying cross cultural and inter linguistic interactions to translators and interpreters students of translation and of modern languages and all those dealing with multilingual and multicultural settings
