Factors in Studying Employment for Persons with Disability Barbara Altman, 2017-09-17 This collection examines less frequently analyzed aspects of employment for persons with disabilities offering a variety of approaches to the conceptualization of work and how it differs across cultures organizations and types of disability Design is Power

Francesco Galli, 2020-12-03T00:00:00+01:00 We are no longer used to critically examining the meaning of design which maintains an unexplored dimension in terms of the Power that can be exercised through the cyclic act of creation preservation and disruption This assumption induce us focus on the contrast between the visible side of the act that involves all its conceptual and practical manifestations and a hidden or dark side that deals with politics and power play but that however has an major influence in the process and its hierarchical dynamics This implies an order on the surface seems to be naturally stirred by the so called perceptions that reflect the preferences of overall public opinions however looking deeper all the production acts involves a carefully controlled disequilibrium influenced by social ecological economical and political interests The power flow in the act of design takes into consideration the paradoxical contradiction between its potentiality and its preservation of power Statutory Rules and Orders Other Than Those of a Local, Personal Or Temporary Character (varies Slightly). Great Britain, Great Britain. Laws, statutes, etc, 1948 Statutory Rules and Orders Other Than Those of a Local, Personal, Or Temporary Character Great Britain, 1947 Low-Income Students, Human Development and Higher Education in South Africa Melanie Walker, Monica McLean, 2022-07-15 This book explores learning outcomes for low income rural and township youth at five South African universities The book is framed as a contribution to southern and Africa centred scholarship adapting Amartya Sen's capability approach and a framework of key concepts capabilities functionings context conversion factors poverty and agency to investigate opportunities and obstacles to achieved student outcomes This approach allows a reimagining of inclusive learning outcomes to encompass the multi dimensional value of a university education and a plurality of valued cognitive and non cognitive outcomes for students from low income backgrounds whose experiences are strongly shaped by hardship Based on capability theorising and student voices the book proposes for policy and practice a set of contextual higher education capability domains and corresponding functionings orientated to more justice and more equality for each person to have the opportunities to be and to do what they have reason to value The book concludes that sufficient material resources are necessary to get into university and flourish while there the benefits of a university education should be rich and multi dimensional so that they can result in functionings in all areas of life as well as work and future study the inequalities and exclusion of the labour market and pathways to further study must be addressed by wider economic and social policies for inclusive learning outcomes to be meaningful and that universities ought to be doing more to enable black working class students to participate and succeed Low Income Students Human Development and Higher Education in South Africa makes an original contribution to capabilitarian scholarship
