Merskin, 2019-11-12

The SAGE International Encyclopedia of Mass Media and Society discusses media around the world in their varied forms newspapers magazines radio television film books music websites social media mobile media and describes the role of each in both mirroring and shaping society This encyclopedia provides a thorough overview of media within social and cultural contexts exploring the development of the mediated communication industry mediated communication regulations and societal interactions and effects This reference work will look at issues such as free expression and government regulation of media how people choose what media to watch listen to and read and how the influence of those who control media organizations may be changing as new media empower previously unheard voices The role of media in society will be explored from international multidisciplinary perspectives via approximately 700 articles drawing on research from communication and media studies sociology anthropology social psychology politics and business Internet Use and Protest in Malaysia and other Authoritarian Regimes Kris Ruijgrok, 2021-04-13 This book investigates the impact of internet use on anti government protesting under authoritarian rule By breaking up the causal chain into various steps it provides a thorough and nuanced understanding of internet s role in different stages of the mobilization process It argues that the impact of internet use on anti governmental protesting differs per step in the mobilization chain and also that the effect depends on both the on and offline repression of the regime as well as on the type of internet that is available While staying far away from any technologically deterministic claims about the internet the book demonstrates that the internet especially plays an important role in the early stages of the mobilization process By exposing citizens to alternative political information online internet users are more likely to become sympathetic towards anti governmental protest movements The Routledge Handbook of Tourism in Asia C. Michael Hall, Stephen J. Page, 2016-09-13 Asia is regarded as the fastest growing area for international and domestic tourism in the world today and over the next 20 years Given the economic social and environmental importance of tourism in the region there is a need for a comprehensive and readable overview of the critical debates and controversies in tourism in the region and the major factors that are affecting tourism development both now and in the foreseeable future This Handbook provides a contemporary survey of the region and its continued growth and development as a key destination and generator of tourism which is marked by a high proportion of intra regional travel The book is divided into five sections This first section provides an introduction to the region and context to the nationally focused chapters The next three sections are then broadly based on the three UNWTO Asian regions South East Asia South and Central Asia and East and North East Asia providing readers with a valuable snapshot of tourism at various scales and from various approaches and positions The concluding section considers future prospects for tourism in Asia The handbook is interdisciplinary in coverage and is also international in scope through its authorship and content It presents a range of perspectives and understanding of the processes and forces that are shaping tourism in this fascinating and dynamic region that is one of the focal points of global tourism This is essential reading for students researchers and academics interested in tourism in the growth region of Asia now and in the future DESIGN-DECODED 2021 Juaini Jamaludin, Hasnul Azwan Azizan, Neesa Ameera Mohamed Salim, Normaziana Hassan, Azhari Md. Routledge Handbook of Political Advertising Christina Holtz-Bacha, Marion R. Just, 2017-02-24 This Handbook provides the most comprehensive overview of the role of electoral advertising on television and new forms of advertising in countries from all parts of the world currently available Thematic chapters address advertising effects negative ads the perspective of practitioners and gender role Country chapters summarize research on issues including political and electoral systems history of ads the content of ads reception and effects of ads regulation of political advertising on television and the Internet financing political advertising and prospects for the future The Handbook confirms that candidates spend the major part of their campaign budget on television advertising The US enjoys a special situation with almost no restrictions on electoral advertising whereas other countries have regulation for the time amount and sometimes even the content of electoral advertising or they do not allow television advertising at all The role that television advertising plays in elections is dependent on the political the electoral and the media context and can generally be regarded as a reflection of the political culture of a country The Internet is relatively unregulated and is the channel of the future for political advertising in many countries

Discourses, Agency and Identity in Malaysia Zawawi Ibrahim, Gareth Richards, Victor T. King, 2021-10-23 This book seeks to break new ground both empirically and conceptually in examining discourses of identity formation and the agency of critical social practices in Malaysia Taking an inclusive cultural studies perspective it questions the ideological narrative of race and ethnicity that dominates explanations of conflicts and cleavages in the Malaysian context The contributions are organised in three broad themes Identities in Contestation Borders Complexities and Hybridities takes a range of empirical studies literary translation religion gender ethnicity indigeneity and sexual orientation to break down preconceived notions of fixed identities This then opens up an examination of Identities and Movements Agency and Alternative Discourses in which contributors deal with counter hegemonic social movements of anti racism young people environmentalism and independent publishing that explicitly seek to open up greater critical democratic space within the Malaysian polity The third section Identities and Narratives Culture and the Media then provides a close textual reading of some exemplars of new cultural and media practices found in oral testimonies popular music film radio programming and storytelling who have consciously created bodies of work that question the dominant national narrative This book is a valuable interdisciplinary work for advanced students and researchers interested in representations of identity and nationhood in Malaysia and for those with wider interests in the fields of critical cultural studies and discourse analysis Here is a fresh startling book to aid the task of unbinding the straitjackets of Malay Chinese and Indian with which colonialism bound Malaysia's plural inheritance and on which the postcolonial state continues to rely In it a panoply of unlikely identities Bajau liminality Kelabit philosophy Islamic feminism refugee hybridity and more finds expression and offers hope for liberation Rachel Leow University of Cambridge This book shakes the foundations of race thinking in Malaysian studies by expanding the range of cases perspectives and outcomes of identity It offers students of Malaysia an examination of identity and agency that is expansive critical and engaging and its interdisciplinary depth brings Malaysian studies into conversation with scholarship across the world Sumit Mandal University of Nottingham Malaysia This is a much needed work that helps us to take apart the colonial inherited categories of race which informed the notion of the plural society the idea of plurality without multiculturalism It complicates the picture of identity by bringing in religion gender indigeneity and sexual orientation and helps us to imagine what a truly multiculturalist Malaysia might look like Syed Farid Alatas National University of Singapore

Everyday Multiculturalism in/across Asia Jessica Walton, Anita Harris, Koichi Iwabuchi, 2021-05-13 What does it mean to bring Asia into conversation with current literature on everyday multiculturalism This book focuses on the empirical theoretical and methodological considerations of using an everyday multiculturalism approach to explore the ordinary ways people live together in difference in the Asian region while also drawing attention to increasing trans Asian mobilities The chapters in this collection encompass interdisciplinary research undertaken in Australia Hong Kong Malaysia Singapore and South Korea that explores some core aspects of everyday multiculturalism as it plays out in and across Asia These include an increase in intraregional movements and especially labour mobility which demands regard for the experiences of migrants from Burma China Nepal The Philippines and India negotiations of cultural diversity in nations where a multi ethnic citizenry is formally recognised through predominantly pluralist models and or where national belonging is highly racialized and intercultural contestation against in some cases the backdrop of a newly emergent multicultural policy environment The book challenges and reinvigorates discussions around the relative transferability of an everyday multiculturalism framework to Asia including concepts such as super diversity conviviality and everyday racism and the importance of close attention to how people navigate differences and commonalities in local and trans local contexts This book will be of interest to academics and researchers studying migration multiculturalism ethnic and racial studies and to advanced students of Sociology Political Science and Public Policy It was originally published as a special issue of Ethnic and Racial Studies

The Planning Moment Sarah Blacker, Emily Brownell, Anindita Nag, Martina Schlünder, Sarah Van Beurden, 2024-05-07 Empires and their aftermaths were massive planning institutions in the past two hundred years the natural and social sciences emerged at least in part as modes of knowledge production for imperial planning Yet these connections are frequently under emphasized in the history of science and its corollary fields The Planning Moment explores the myriad ways plans and planning practices pervade recent global history The book is built around twenty seven brief case studies that explore the centrality of planning in colonial and postcolonial environments relationships and contexts through a range of disciplines the history of science science and technology studies colonial and postcolonial studies urban studies and the history of knowledge If colonialism made certain landscapes populations and institutions legible while obscuring others The Planning Moment reveals the frequently disruptive and violent processes of erasure in imperial planning by examining how common sense was produced and how the intransigence of planning persists long after decolonization In recognizing the resistance and subversion that often met colonial plans the book makes visible a range of strategies and techniques by which planning was modified and reappropriated and by which decolonial futures might be imagined Contributors Itty Abraham Benjamin Allen Sarah Blacker Emily Brownell Lino Camprub John DiMoia Mona Fawaz Lilly Irani Chihyung Jeon Robert Kett Monika Kirloskar Steinbach Karen McAllister Laura Mitchell Gregg Mitman Aaron Moore Nada Moumtaz Tahani Nadim Anindita Nag Ra l Necochea L pez Tamar Novick Benjamin Peters Juno Salazar Parre as Martina Schl nder Sarah Van Beurden Helen Verran Ana Carolina Vimieiro Gomes Alexandra Widmer and Alden Young Politics in Contemporary Southeast Asia Damien
