Adulthood in Children's Literature Vanessa Joosen, 2018-09-06 While most scholars who study children's books are pre-occupied with the child characters and adult mediators, Vanessa Joosen re-positions the lens to focus on the under-explored construction of adulthood in children's literature. Adulthood in Children's Literature demonstrates how books for young readers evoke adulthood as a stage in life enacted by adult characters and in relationship with the construction of childhood. Employing age studies as a framework for analysis, this book covers a range of English and Dutch children's books published from 1970 to the present. Calling upon critical voices like Elisabeth Young Bruehl, Margaret Morganroth Gullette, Peter Hollindale, Maria Nikolajeva and Lorraine Green and the works of such authors as Babette Cole, Philip Pullman, Ted van Lieshout, Jacqueline Wilson, Salman Rushdie and Guus Kuijer, Joosen offers a fresh perspective on children's literature by focusing not on the child but the adult.

Never Broken - My Journey from the Horrors of Iraq to the Birth of My Miracle Baby Hannah Campbell, 2015-08-06 When a bomb blast buried Corporal Hannah Campbell alive while she was serving in Iraq, it was the start of an incredible journey of self-discovery. From the collapse of her marriage to suffering horrific post-traumatic stress disorder, becoming morbidly obese, addicted to prescription drugs and suicidal, she went to hell and back. Hannah, who left her toddler at home to go to war, then made the extraordinary decision to amputate her own badly damaged leg so she could learn to live again and be a mum to her four-year-old daughter, Milly. Within hours of waking up from the amputation, she announced she would fulfil her dream of running the London Marathon, even though at that time she was unable to walk. Just two months later, she put on her first of many prosthetic legs and crossed the finishing line, running into the arms of her beloved young daughter. This spurred her to lose half her body weight before spending her army compensation on a 52,000 cosmetic makeover, which led her to find love again. In an amazing transformation of fortune, she became pregnant with miracle baby Lexi River, astounding her doctors as this was a child she was told she'd never have due to her blast injuries. Hannah's story is one of true heroism and triumph over seemingly insurmountable adversity. But simply, it's also a story about how a mother's love for her children can conquer all.

Mummy's Little Angel JW Lawson, 2016-06-02 Joanne didn't believe that her life could become worse than it already was. She had lost everybody and everything she had loved. Surely, she had suffered enough. The press had called Joanne's identical twins psychopaths. Her Maggie. Her Annie. But she still loved them, even though one of them had killed her husband, Jeff. Joanne believed that his murder had been an accident. How could one of her girls be a murderer? She knew them better than anybody else; they were good girls, really. She just had to prove it. The brutal murder of Joanne's goddaughter, Laura, had never been solved. Items had been missing when Laura's remains were discovered: clues that could lead to the capture of her killer. One of them was Laura's doll, the doll that Joanne later discovers in her home. Joanne is facing the most horrific dilemma of her life: Has the wrong woman been imprisoned? Could her child have used such brutality against her best friend? Or could both women be innocent after all? Joanne needs to find somebody for her daughter to confide in, somebody she will trust. She needs a miracle. There is only one person who can help. He is compassionate and caring, with an amazing ability to gain the trust of the most difficult patients. He is Joanne's only hope. He is Jonathan Davies.
