The Skid Row Stabber Ruth Kanton,2020-11-29 Since the 1930s Skid Row had been occupied by the working poor and as unemployment rates rose the streets of Skid Row were home to alcoholics and petty criminals In the 70s Skid Row was occupied by a large number of Vietnam veterans as well as heavy drug users Coupled with the failing infrastructures in the area poverty and homelessness Skid Row was considered one of the most dangerous places in Los Angeles Recounting the state of the neighborhood Mellecker stated Anything south of First and Second streets you wouldn't go down there without a gun It was in these streets that the serial killer later dubbed the Skid Row Stabber claimed his victims with the first victim discovered on October 23 1978 Who was the Skid Row Stabber A Need to Kill Mark Pettit,2016-12-01 Three time EMMY award winning investigative reporter Mark Pettit returns to write the final chapter in the sordid saga of Nebraska serial child killer John Joubert In the non fiction novel style of Truman Capote's In Cold Blood Pettit delves into the mind of an Eagle Scout turned killer recreating Joubert's violent past and solving a string of unsolved crimes You Can't Stop Murder Stephen Tabeling,2020-09-30 Cross Fire James Patterson,2010 The 17th novel in the bestselling Alex Cross series A sniper has Washington's corrupt elite in their sights Detective Alex Cross could be next Alex Cross is planning his wedding to Brianna Stone when the killings begin Two of the capital's most hated corrupt politicians slain by a sniper's bullets and there are more to come Public opinion is divided is the marksman a murderer or a hero As the media frenzy intensifies Cross battles over jurisdiction with an FBI rival and soon receives a call from the Mastermind his deadliest adversary Cross's worst fears are coming true the Mastermind is in D C and this time he won't stop until Cross and his family are dead Serial Killers and Sadistic Murderers Jack Levin,2009-09-18 After twenty five years of investigating analyzing and interviewing serial killers their family members neighbors and even surviving victims Jack Levin has become one of the world's most respected experts on the motivations and modus operandi of dangerous criminals In this gripping book he taps his wealth of experience with the criminal mind to offer lessons for law enforcement and the general public about how serial killers think as well as the conditions under which hideous murders typically occur These lessons he hopes will lead to more effective ways to thwart such crimes in the future Levin's face to face meetings and correspondence with such notorious murderers as the Hillside strangler Kenneth Bianchi and Orville Lynn Majors the male nurse who was convicted of killing numerous patients in his charge reveal that these types of killers are not motivated by money revenge or rage In fact the only motivation seems to be a sadistic craving for power and a need to feel in control Levin also for the first time lets down his guard and reveals what it feels like to be seated so close to such cold blooded killers Many killers as Levin points out are meticulous planners Levin has found that even in situations that appear spontaneous for instance a workplace shooting by a disgruntled employee the deed is carefully thought out and prepared for in advance Another factor that consistently emerges in conversations with killers who have committed the most heinous of acts is the total absence of remorse or any notion of moral responsibility Murder appears to be easy for these criminals and they kill with a feeling of complete impunity Levin also notes the skillfully deceptive facades that such murderers are able to affect They are extremely adept liars he admits to having been fooled who enjoy playing mind games even though outwardly they seem above suspicion This is one reason they are so dangerous and difficult for investigators to track down and prosecute This chilling glimpse into the minds of some of the worst criminals

Murder in Washington, 2016-11-22 Murder in Washington Notorious Crime Sites is author Marques Vickers' visual return to 78 infamous crime scenes detailing the shocking and often searing narratives behind each tragedy. Over 100 images amplify the experience by escorting the reader to the crime location offering a critical context and perspective for understanding. The Washington edition is Vickers' third in the series of The Topography of Evil showcasing crime sites. The captured snapshots portray visual testimonies of extinguished lives removed by acts of violence. Crime scenes often revert back into unremarkable landscape or unassuming buildings over the ensuing years and decades. Several have altered little since their moment of infamy. Many are passed daily by pedestrian and vehicular traffic unaware of a location's unique significance. Washington has been the residence of three nationally prominent serial killers including Ted Bundy, Gary Ridgway, The Green River Killer, and Lee Boyd Malvo, DC Sniper. The Murder in Washington edition is segmented into eight categories including assassinations, historical legacies, premeditated homicides, chance encounters, and impulse killings, law enforcement fatalities, and controversies, unsolved murders, rampage and serial killers, and killings. Within the context of examining each profile, many important issues are raised for discussion without necessarily culminating in resolution. These subjects include capital punishment, American racial perceptions, parental influences, child rearing, media reporting, public bias, juvenile sentencing, self-incrimination protections, and the impartiality of our judicial system. Controversial options such as voluntary euthanasia for the condemned are suggested when examining the hopeless backlog of death row and life term convicts. An extensive listing of fatality victims is included along with convicted and deceased killers. Living convicts are listed in their current penal residence.

The Biggest Death-Row Break-Out In American History Randall Meddock, 2021-05-25 Serial killers same author shows from two battered theses: 1. On the morning of October 19, 1979, parolee James Briley stood before a judge and vowed to quit the criminal life. That same day, James met with brothers Linwood Anthony and 16-year-old neighbor Duncan Meekins. What they planned and carried out would make them American serial killer legends and reveal to police investigators a 7-month rampage of rape, robbery, and murder exceeding in brutality already documented cases of psychopaths, sociopaths, and sex criminals.
