Environmental Entrepreneurship Markets Meet The Environment In Unexpected Places:

Environmental Entrepreneurship Laura E. Huggins, 2013-09-30 In this innovative book Laura E Huggins finds path breaking entrepreneurial solutions to difficult environmental challenges in some of the world's poorest areas The approaches entrepreneurs are taking to these challenges involve establishing Free Market Environmentalism for the Next Generation

T. Anderson, D. Leal, 2015-02-04 This book provides a vision for environmentalism's future based on the success of environmental entrepreneurs around the world The work provides the next generation of environmental market ideas and the chapters are co-authored with young scholars and policy analysts who represent the next generation of environmental leaders

Liberalism Unveiled: Forging A New Third Way In Singapore Bryan Yi Da Cheang, Donovan Choy, 2021-01-04 Since 1965 Singapore has been propelled to the dizzying heights of first world prosperity Yet the People's Action Party's signature style of technocratic elitism has come under increasing criticism by a new generation of left-leaning progressive scholars and activists condemning the excesses of neoliberalism The PAP's mode of governance that prioritizes economic growth is criticised in favour of a vaguely European style welfare state and greater state intervention Bryan Cheang and Donovan Choy break this traditional pro PAP versus anti PAP dichotomy by providing a fresh classical liberal perspective The authors contend that both sides discern only parts of the political puzzle correctly This book envisions a new path forward for Singapore's policy making one characterised by greater competition freedom It critiques the conservative right through a fresh take on the philosophical underpinnings of the Singapore Consensus communitarianism meritocracy and technocracy The authors also engage with the new social democratic orthodoxy demonstrating the dangers of egalitarian interventions state-based environmentalism Applying the interdisciplinary insights of political philosophy and political economy this novel account recommends epistemic liberalism a system of governance based on intellectual humility limited government and decentralisation

The History and Evolution of the North American Wildlife Conservation Model Robert E. Wright, 2022-06-14 This book explains how six policies collectively called the North American Wildlife Conservation Model NAWCM put in place around the turn of the twentieth century saved numerous iconic big game species from extinction Rigid adherence to the NAWCM however especially its ban on the commercial sale of wild game meat has allowed deer and some other species to become overabundant pests in areas where hunting pressure recently declined and habitat rebounded Texas and South Africa have proven that scientific insight and market incentives can combine to prevent game overabundance and decrease the fragility and extend the range of iconic mammal game species This book outlines how intermediate steps like proxy hunting and other wildlife regulation reforms could be used to lure more hunters into the field and move other states towards the Texas model incrementally thereby minimizing risks to wildlife or human stakeholders

Understanding Social Entrepreneurship Jill Kickul, Thomas S. Lyons, 2016-03-10 Understanding Social Entrepreneurship is the leading textbook that provides students with a comprehensive overview of the field It brings the mindset principles strategies tools and techniques of entrepreneurship into the social sector to present innovative solutions to today's vexing social issues. COVID-19 and a World in Chaos Mehmet Nesip Ögün, Serdar Yurtsever, 2022-07-26 A century after the Spanish Flu, the world has again witnessed a new pandemic that affected the whole globe and stopped life for a long time. This book brings together studies on the impact of the COVID-19 pandemic, authored by distinguished experts, examining its effect in various fields including education, the economy, international capital markets, banking, marketing, tourism, aviation, work life and international relations. Although there are early studies that have addressed these issues, this text presents a broader study of the pandemic from an academic viewpoint.

Bulletin of the Atomic Scientists, 1969-02 The Bulletin of the Atomic Scientists is the premier public resource on scientific and technological developments that impact global security. Founded by Manhattan Project Scientists, the Bulletin's iconic Doomsday Clock stimulates solutions for a safer world.

Creating the Social Venture Susan Coleman, Dafna Kariv, 2015-08-20 Social entrepreneurship is a growing area and we frequently hear of new ventures committed to social change. In academia, however, social entrepreneurship has typically been taught as a version of entrepreneurship ignoring the unique structure, challenges and goals of the social venture. In their new book, Coleman and Kariv draw on the latest theory and research to provide boundaries to the definition of social entrepreneurship, discussing both what it is and what it is not. The book answers several key questions: Who are social entrepreneurs? What is the process for identifying and solving a social need? What are the differences between for-profit and not-for-profit social ventures? What is the role of innovation? How do we develop high-performing firms? How do we measure success? The focus on context allows students to appreciate how social entrepreneurship develops and operates in different countries and cultures, lending a global perspective to the book. Combined with rich pedagogy and a companion website, it provides students with all the learning tools they need to grasp this important subject.

Meeting the Innovation Challenge Scott Isaksen, Joseph Tidd, 2006-06-26 Meeting the Innovation Challenge offers a new way to look at creative leadership that integrates both leadership and management. This book also provides the student with key insights into a new and more systematic way to manage transformation. As a result, the student will be able to discover a full range of potential outcomes from their change efforts, from radical new to the world transformation.

to incremental improvements Since people are at the heart of any transformation issue Meeting the Innovation Challenge includes helpful information on the various roles required to initiate and sustain change efforts Many change initiatives use teams so specific tools are outlined to create and manage teamwork for transformation Those who lead and manage organizations have too many change methods from which to choose This book offers practical advice on how to select and manage a variety of change methods as well as a helpful selected list of many of the methods available from which to choose An example is drawn and explained from the area of new product or service development An often overlooked element of climate and context is also addressed Successful innovation change and transformation require an environment in which people are ready willing and able to initiate and sustain change Meeting the Innovation Challenge addresses this area by clarifying the differences between culture and climate and then offering practical ways to understand and create the climate for transformation

Enabling Agri-entrepreneurship and Innovation Catherine Chan,Brent S Sipes,Tina

Lee,2017-02-14 Agricultural entrepreneurs in conflict and post conflict regions face special challenges not just everyday personal risks but also the difficulties of building small businesses when real or threatened violence can disrupt business growth cycles and economic security Alongside establishing secure institutions building a secure economy is rightly seen as the best way for conflict torn regions to establish a peaceful future But current agricultural entrepreneurship training and development starts from an assumption of peace meaning that it is not always fit for purpose The result is sub optimal program design and inefficient use of resources A product of a collaboration of experts in the fields of agri business agricultural marketing and international development this book gives officials and agencies developing entrepreneurship programs the practical real life examples they need
