This volume proposes an environment oriented model of reading and applies it to a well defined corpus all existing English translations of Olga Tokarczuk's fiction. These are Primeval and Other Times House of Day House of Night Drive Your Plow Over the Bones of the Dead Flights The Books of Jacob and The Empusium. Removed from the immediate cultural context of a single author these novels give a representative sample of contemporary literature read by Anglophone people of diverse national backgrounds who live in different localities but share one endangered planet whether they realise it or not. The book charts five ways in which our reading protocols have shifted the way of interconnectedness the way of nature cultures the way of sympoiesis the way of Earth Island and the way of the beginning of the Anthropocene. Modern society needs machines which need energy which in turn need fuel the root cause of Man's deliverance as well as being his nemesis. Bellieni,Lourdes Velázquez,2024-10-29 The concept of evolution has evolved over time This is the conclusion reached by Carlo Bellieni and Lourdes Vel zquez examining the biological and philosophical literature that concerns this topic From an evolution based on competition to make the fittest prevail we have moved on to an evolution that admits the collaboration between species and of single beings with their environment among the forces that produced it Now we know that the environment can influence how genes mutate even though it does not directly produce a mutation Evolution based on competition produced Malthusianism and social Darwinism which were used to justify the prevalence of one people over a less suitable one this scheme now shows its limits City and Environment

Heavenly Space in Hebrews and Its Jewish and Christian Environment Stephen C. Wunrow,2025-06-12 Stephen Wunrow addresses the pressing question of what the author of Hebrews meant by his descriptions of heaven arguing that the author intended his references to heavenly space to be interpreted as realistic descriptions of a real place Wunrow posits that language about heaven is neither metaphor nor a description of a place outside the creation by examining other early Jewish and Christian texts that narrate or describe humans ascending into heaven Given the nature and the function of heavenly space as described in these texts Wunrow suggests it is most probable that the authors of the texts intended their descriptions of heavenly space to be understood as realistic Wunrow thus explores 1 and 2 Enoch 4 Ezra 2 and 3 Baruch the Apocalypse of Abraham the Testament of Levi the Testament of Abraham the Ascension of Isaiah and Revelation investigating how other roughly contemporary authors described heavenly space and considering that the rhetorical aims of most of these authors fail unless their readers understand their descriptions of heavenly space in realistic ways Turning then to examine Hebrews Wunrow suggests that while the letter does contain unique features and rhetorical aims it also fits comfortably with other early Jewish and Christian texts that describe humans ascending into heaven in a realistic manner He concludes with reflections on how this conclusion helps to clarify other topics in Hebrews including atonement and eschatology NOAA. ,1980 Proceedings , NOAA.
