Episcopal Liturgical Calendar 2printable:

The Justice of God Arthur Pink, 2020-07-15 It is scarcely surprising that far less has been written upon the justice of God than upon some of the other Divine perfections We are accustomed to turn our thoughts unto those objects and subjects which afford us the most pleasure and to avoid those which render us uneasy But no servant of the Lord should be guilty of pandering to this tendency Rather must he endeavor with all his might to declare all the counsel of God and to portray the Divine character just as it is set forth in Holy Writ He must not conceal a single feature thereof no matter how awe inspiring it is or how repellent to the fallen creature It is impossible for us to entertain right conceptions of God unless we have before us a full orb'd sight of His varied excellencies To view Him only as Love to refuse to contemplate Him as Light will necessarily result in our manufacturing a false god in our imaginations a caricature of the true and living God God is a Being possessed of every excellence Not one of them could be lacking without changing His character and therefore if any one of them is either unintentionally or deliberately omitted then the object of contemplation is not the true God but a figment which is the outcome of our misconception Yet while we are required to acknowledge all the Divine attributes nevertheless they do not all produce the same effect in our heart and mind Some are objects of pleasure but others fill us with awe and fear Divine wisdom delights us with the wonders of its production and the marvels of its contrivance Divine goodness charms us with the richness and variety of its gifts As we contemplate God as a gracious Benefactor joy is awakened within us and as we perceive Him ministering to our numerous needs we are filled with gratitude But when we turn our thoughts unto the immaculate holiness of the Divine nature and the inflexible justice of His moral government a different order of sentiments is evoked

Arizona has stories as peculiar as its stunning landscapes The Lost Dutchman's rumored cache of gold sparked a legendary feud Kidnapping victim Larcena Pennington Page survived two weeks alone in the wilderness and her first request upon rescue was for a chew of tobacco Discover how the town of Why got its name how the government built a lake that needed mowing and how wild camels ended up in North America Author Marshall Trimble unearths these and other amusing anomalies outstanding obscurities and compelling curiosities in the state's history Understanding Your Neighbor's Faith

Philip Lazowski,2004 Understanding Your Neighbor's Faith What Christians and Jews Should Know About Each Other was the brainchild of Rabbi Philip Lazowski of Hartford Connecticut The idea was born several years back after he invited a group of non Jewish clergymen to visit the Holy Land with him Priests ministers and some members of their congregations who wanted a better understanding of Israel and Judaism enthusiastically accepted his gesture of good will Rabbi Lazowski's unique perspective as a Holocaust survivor made him ideally poised to teach others about the historical and philosophical context of Judaism as well as its rich tradition of practice Rabbi Lazowski also learned much from his colleagues of other faith traditions This unprecedented volume gives Rabbi Lazowski and the other clergy the opportunity to explicate their religion using their own language and concepts in responding to the questions of people of goodwill outside their faith Difficult even uncomfortable questions are asked and answered No question is too simple or too complex Every chapter each by an author belonging to a different Christian faith tradition will prove as informative to the co religionist as to the outsider The concise straightforward question and answer style allows the book to be studied in full read casually or consulted for reference
