Epitaphs And Images From Scottish Graveyards:

Epitaphs and Images from Scottish Graveyards Betty Willsher, 1996 This is an illustrated collection of epitaphs divided into sections such as death resurrection the professions and trades eulogies and epitaphs quaint and curious Mortuary Monuments and Burial Grounds of the Historic Period Harold Mytum, 2012-12-06 Burial grounds strike an immediate chord with all who visit them They are land scapes full of pathos and cultural associations which many find attractive though a minority feel are too morbid to deserve detailed attention This book is designed to offer a framework for studying historic burial ground monuments and contains a certain amount of information regarding below ground archaeology as some projects will involve the study of both Moreover from a research perspective above and below ground archaeology together can throw considerable light on the process of dying body disposal and commemoration that formed a continuum for those involved However the more easily accessible graveyard memorials can be used to study many aspects of past culture beyond that directly associated with death and they are the focus of the book Most people who become interested in historic graveyard memorials come to the subject via the material itself Only rarely does a research question get posed and graveyard data seem like an appropriate arena for investigation This has the advantage that many researchers have some ideas about the data available but the disadvantage that they may not have clear questions to ask of it nor how to set their discoveries in a wider intellectual context Scottish Epitaphs Betty Willsher, 1996 Death, Burial and

Commemoration in Ireland, 1550-1650 C. Tait, 2002-10-23 This book is the first detailed examination of death in early modern Ireland It deals with the process of dying the conduct of funerals the arrangement of burials the private and public commemoration of the dead and ideas about the afterlife It further considers ways in which the living fashioned ceremonies of death and the reputations of the dead to support their own ends It will be of interest to those concerned with Irish history and death studies generally The Archaeology of Industrialization: Society of Post-Medieval Archaeology Monographs: v. 2 David Barker, 2020-08-26 This book is the outcome of the first joint conference of the two country s foremost societies devoted to the archaeological study of the early modern and modern worlds It discusses the progress of industrialization and its impact upon modern society The Happy Valley Ken Nicolson, 2010-06-01 Hong Kong s oldest Western cemetery garden is located in Happy Valley This history and tour highlights the need for urgent action to conserve the built and natural heritage resources of this important cultural landscape The author challenges the reader to reconsider the basic approach to heritage conservation adopted in Hong Kong where a false dichotomy persists between natural and built heritage conservation initiatives The Hong Kong Cemetery provides an excellent example of a precious cultural landscape which is deteriorating because simplistic approaches to site management have failed to understand and protect the complex interrelationship between the natural flora mid fauna habitats and built monuments and Memorials heritage resources The first three chapters introduce the cemetery garden concept as it evolved in early nineteenth century Europe and was eventually established in Hong Kong by the British The second half of the book provides a self guided tour of the cemetery highlighting its resources as well as explaining the main conservation problems and possible solutions to protect the cemetery Proceedings of the Society of Antiquaries of Scotland Society of Antiquaries of Scotland,1913 Includes List of members Journal of Scottish Historical Studies ,2005 Making Sense of Dying and Death Andrew Fagan,2004 Health illness and disease are topics well suited to interdisciplinary inquiry This book brings together scholars from around the world who share an interest in and a commitment to bridging the traditional boundaries of inquiry We hope that this book begins new conversations that will situate health in broader socio cultural contexts and establish connections between health illness and disease and other socio political issues This book is the outcome of the first global conference on Making Sense of Health Illness and Disease held at St Catherine s College Oxford in June 2002 The selected papers pursue a range of topics from the cultural significance of narratives of health illness and disease to healing practices in contemporary society as well as patients illness experiences Understanding Scottish Graveyards Betty Willsher,2005 Graveyard epitaphs that capsule the life and death of ordinary and extraordinary people and of curiosities of times past are of endless interest the topics in this engaging book range from the standing stones and cairns of the Neolithic and Bronze ages and the early Christian graves to European traditions marking death A Scottish Graveyard Miscellany Hamish M. Brown,2008 In A Scottish Graveyard Miscellany Hamish Brown explores in words and extraordinary pictures the folk art of Scottish graveyards from the eighteenth century when gravestones began to be widely used to the present day Each old kirkyard is a riotous celebration of folk art there are skulls and skeletons ships and lighthouses angels galore carved portraits of our forebears and even a gravestone decorated with a picture of Bart Simpson and his skateboard More than mere memorials the graves are a collection of pages in stone taken from the history of Scottish everyday life Scotland s kirkyards are not gloomy places to be shunned but places to find vivid stories from the lives of people without distinction of class or creed There is much humor in this book and the photographs throughout taken by the author illustrate better than words why we should look after the unique treasures in our midst Epitaph Culture in the West Karl Siegfried Guthke,2003 This book examines a number of facets of Western epitaph culture since antiquity with particular emphasis on post medieval developments in the major European countries as well as in North America Various epitaphic sub cultures are analyzed among them the time honored custom of composing one s own tomb inscription as well as the ancient and modern convention of honoring animals with epitaphs It also examines epitaph collecting epitaph lies humorous epitaphs and the change in social and religious attitudes toward suicides The book concludes with a cultural and intellectual history of epitaphs An epilogue addresses the question of the supposed disappearance of epitaph culture at the present time The Archaeology of Industrialization Association for Industrial Archaeology,2004 This book is the outcome of the first joint conference of the two country s foremost societies devoted to the archaeological study of the early modern and modern worlds It discusses the progress of industrialization and its impact upon modern society AGS Quarterly ,2003 Epitaphs & inscriptions from burial grounds & old buildings in the north-east of Scotland, also an appendix of illustrative papers Andrew Jervise,1875 Epitaphs & Inscriptions from Burial Grounds & Old Buildings in the North-east of Scotland Andrew Jervise,1875 Epitaphs and Inscriptions from Burial Grounds and Old Buildings Andrew Jervise,2023-11-20 Reprint of the original first published in 1875 Curious epitaphs, collected from the graveyards of Great Britain and Ireland, with biogr., genealogical, and hist. notes, by W. Andrews Curious epitaphs,1883 Epitaphs, Graveyard Humour & Eulogy ,1925 Curious Epitaphs William Andrews,1883
