, 1991 The Lab Matthew Clark Davison, Alice LaPlante, 2025-07-22 Great writing doesn't begin with form it begins with obsession Two novelists offer an inspiring guide to transforming that obsession using whatever genre fits best Writers don't need formulas they need encouragement to take risks The Lab offers a bold hands on approach urging writers to embrace uncertainty experiment with form and investigate what haunts them The Lab features ten chapters and ninety exercises challenging writers to play with fiction memoir and poetry or push toward hybrid or entirely new forms This is a book for those ready to dig deep and write fearlessly The Power of Continuity Eva Poluha, 2004 In this gracefully written book Dr Eva Poluha wrestles with important issues of Ethiopian political culture and cultural continuity and transmission in general Drawing upon her years of experience in the country as well as the data from this school ethnography she has produced a stimulating and thought provoking work for those interested in problems of cross cultural education as well as in Ethiopia Herbert S Lewis Professor Emeritus Department of Anthropology University of Wisconsin Madison Children play a vital role as a source of information on politics but have been neglected as political actors in research contexts In this study children are used as a window to an Ethiopian society where hierarchical relations persist despite the numerous political and administrative transformations of the past century With data gathered through participant observation the book examines how young Addis Ababa school children learn to adapt to and reproduce relations of superordination or subordination based on gender age strength and social position The children's experiences are viewed in the historical context of state citizen relations where hierarchy and obsession with control have been and continue to be dominant The discussion focuses on the power of continuity in the reproduction of cultural patterns and political behaviour and on how change towards more egalitarian relations could come about International Yearbook of Education, 1987 Content of yearbooks originates in the sessions of the International Conference on Education ICE The Publishers Weekly, 1918 Revolutionary Struggles and Girls' Education Thera Mjaaland, 2021-07-27 Revolutionary Struggles and Girls Education At the Frontiers of Gender Norms in North Ethiopia argues that at the base of girls poorer performance than boys at secondary school level when puberty has set in is the symbolic violence entailed in sanctioned femaleness Informed by the modesty of Virgin Mary in Orthodox Christian veneration it instructs girls to internalize a holding back which impinges on her self efficacy and ability to be an active learner Neoliberally informed educational policies and plans which have co opted liberal feminism also in Ethiopia do not address hard lived gender norms and the power and domination dynamics entailed when parity between boys and girls in school continues to be the dominant measure for equity Despite women s courageous contribution at a literal frontier during the Tigrayan liberation struggle 1975 91 where they fought on equal terms with men and despite the tendency that girls outnumber boys at secondary level in the present context sanctioned femaleness constitutes a frontier for girls educational success and transition to higher education In fact when teaching learning continues to be based on memorization rather than critical thinking the very transformative potential of education is undermined also in a gendered sense NOAA ,1974
