Andrea Acri, 2017-03-13 This volume seeks to foreground a borderless history and geography of South Southeast and East Asian littoral zones that would be maritime focused and thereby explore the ancient connections and dynamics of interaction that favoured the encounters among the cultures found throughout the region stretching from the Indian Ocean littorals to the Western Pacific from the early historical period to the present Transcending the artificial boundaries of macro regions and nation states and trying to bridge the arbitrary divide between inherently cosmopolitan high cultures e.g. Sanskrit Sinitic or Islamicate and local or indigenous cultures this multidisciplinary volume explores the metaphor of Monsoon Asia as a vast geo environmental area inhabited by speakers of numerous language phyla which for millennia has formed an integrated system of littorals where crops goods ideas cosmologies and ritual practices circulated on the sea routes governed by the seasonal monsoon winds The collective body of work presented in the volume describes Monsoon Asia as an ideal theatre for circulatory dynamics of cultural transfer interaction acceptance selection and avoidance and argues that despite the rich ethnic linguistic and sociocultural diversity a shared pattern of values norms and cultural models is discernible throughout the region Annotated Bibliography on the Mekong Charnvit Kasetsiri, Christopher John Baker, 2008 Millions depend on the Mekong The river is the focus of wide ranging debates over development strategy governance legal issues and environmental management Entries include works not only in English and European languages but also in Burmese Japanese Mandarin Thai and Vietnamese covering history culture natural resources economy social issues politics and security

CHARNVIT KASETSIRI is a distinguished historian former Rector of Thammasat University and long standing activist on social political and intellectual issues CHRIS BAKER is a writer editor and translator resident in Bangkok

Scars of Partition William F. S. Miles, 2014-07-01 Based on three decades of fieldwork throughout the developing world Scars of Partition is the first book to systematically evaluate the long term implications of French and British styles of colonialism and decolonization for ordinary people throughout the so called Third World It pays particular attention to the contemporary legacies of artificial boundaries superimposed by Britain and France that continue to divide indigenous peoples into separate postcolonial states In so doing it uniquely illustrates how the distinctive stamps of France and Britain continue to mark daily life along and behind these inherited borders in Africa Asia Oceania and the Caribbean Scars of Partition draws on political science anthropology history and geography to examine six cases of indigenous indentured and enslaved peoples partitioned by colonialism in West Africa West Indies South Pacific Southeast Asia South India and the Indian Ocean William F S Miles demonstrates that sovereign nations throughout the developing world despite basic differences in culture geography and politics still bear the underlying imprint of their colonial pasts Disentangling and appreciating these embedded colonial legacies is critical to achieving full decolonization particularly in their borderlands

Ethnic Groups of Laos: Profiles of Austro-Asiatic-speaking peoples Joachim Schliesinger, 2003 Education in the Lao People's Democratic Republic Richard Noonan, 2020-05-20 This book provides a comprehensive and in depth description of the education system in Lao PDR It covers pre school primary secondary general secondary technical and vocational post secondary non higher education and adult non formal education and training In addition to the main content the book includes a glossary of terms and abbreviations used and an appendix on the organizational structure of the Ministry of Education and Sports including the linkages between the national provincial and district level The content covers public and private sector education provision alike

Education, Language, and Economics, 2010-01-01 There are two contending opinions with regard to the seemingly amorphous phenomenon of globalization Some believe that globalization has brought rapid prosperity to developing countries while others argue that globalization best serves the needs of countries of the developed world Bringing globalization under the microscope of education this book illustrates how globalization is producing unprecedented impacts on education and culture through a series of country case studies elaborating on effects of economic and educational policies in the modern globalized world New emphasis on the interplay between state and education policy initiatives in developed and developing countries also illuminates the direct and indirect impact of globalization in equity and quality driven education reforms with particular focus on the contribution of marketization or privatization to the ongoing commodification of education and curricula presenting dilemmas to both developed and developing countries to provide quality education for all protect human rights and ensure equity in all realms of human endeavor This book offers a multiplicity of approaches to education and development and posits that distributional equity and quality education in a globalized world require a strong state and commitment to social justice to counteract growing disparities evident in educational and economic indices The authors illustrate how respatialization of the contemporary state is rapidly taking shape in concrete institutions to recast the boundaries of the social political and economic in fundamental ways Education Language and Economics Growing National and Global Dilemmas serves as an ideal introduction to key contemporary debates on politics culture and the economy

Land Law and Disputes in Asia Yuka Kaneko, Narufumi Kadomatsu, Brian Z. Tamanaha, 2021-09-16 Through an in depth legal analysis by leading scholars this book searches for the exact legal causes of land related disputes in Asia within the histories legal systems and social realities of the respective countries It consists of four main parts examining the relationship between law and development land taking in developmental stages common ownership and proposals for new approaches to land law and dispute resolution With a combination of orthodox legal interpretations and the empirical approach of legal sociology the contributors undertake an extensive comparative legal analysis across common and civil law traditions Most importantly they propose pathways forward for legal transformations in the pursuit of sustainable development in Asia This book is vital contribution to the study of comparative law and especially property law in East and Southeast Asia

Embodied Nation Simon Creak, 2017-08-31 This strikingly original book examines how sport and ideas of physicality have shaped the politics and culture of modern Laos Viewing the country s extraordinary transitions from French colonialism to royalist nationalism to revolutionary socialism to the modern development state through the lens of physical culture Simon Creak s lively and incisive narrative illuminates a nation that has no reputation in sport and is typically viewed even from within as a country of cheerful but lazy people Creak argues that sport and related physical practices including physical education gymnastics and military training have shaped a national consciousness by locating it in everyday experience These practices are popular participatory performative and above all physical in character and embody ideas and ideologies in a symbolic and experiential way Embodied Nation takes readers on a brisk ride through more than a century of Lao history from a nineteenth century game of tikhi an indigenous game resembling field hockey to the country s unprecedented outpouring of nationalist sentiment when hosting the 2009 Southeast Asian Games En route we witness a Lao Vietnamese soccer brawl in 1936 the fascist inspired body ethic of the early 1940s the novel modes of military masculinity that blossomed with national independence the spectacular state theatrics of power represented by Olympic inspired sports festivals and the high hopes and frequent failures of socialist sport in the 1970s and 1980s Of central concern in Creak s narrative are the twin motifs of gender and civilization Despite increasing female participation since the early twentieth century he demonstrates the major role that sport and physical culture have played in forming hegemonic masculinities in Laos Even with limited national sporting success Laos has never won an Olympic medal the healthy toned and muscular form has come to symbolize material development and prosperity Embodied Nation outlines the complex ways in which these motifs through sport and physical culture articulate with state power Combining cultural and intellectual history with historical thick description Creak draws on a creative array of Lao and French sources from previously unexplored archives newspapers and magazines and from ethnographic writing war photography and cartoons More than an imagined community or geobody he shows that Laos was also a body at work making substantive theoretical contributions not only to Southeast Asian studies and history but to the study of the physical culture nationalism masculinity and modernity in all modern societies

Introduction to Cambodia Gilad James, PhD, Cambodia also known as the Kingdom of Cambodia is located in Southeast Asia with Thailand to the northwest Laos to the northeast Vietnam to the east and the Gulf of Thailand to the south The country has a rich and tumultuous history with ancient Hindu and Buddhist kingdoms European colonialism and the devastating rule of the Khmer Rouge Despite its troubled past Cambodia has made significant progress in recent decades and is emerging as a popular tourist destination Cambodia's capital city is Phnom Penh which is known for its French colonial architecture bustling markets and the Royal Palace Other popular tourist destinations include Siem Reap home to the famous Angkor Wat temple complex and Sihanoukville a coastal city with stunning beaches and offshore islands The country's official language is Khmer and the currency is the Cambodian riel Cambodia's economy largely relies on agriculture with rice being the main crop and tourism has become a significant source of income in recent years

Challenging the Limits Prasit Liprīchā, Don N. McCaskill, Khwanchiwan Būadāeng, 2008 Except on tourist brochures the indigenous peoples of Laos Thailand Vietnam and southern China Yunnan are the least visible and most excluded of citizens All these countries have used similar strategies to classify include or exclude minority peoples from the project of nationalism Understanding the cultural and economic trajectories of key minorities such as the Dai Hmong Lahu Akha and Karen is critical to apprehending the construction workings and future of each of these nation states indeed of the Mekong region as a whole Conversely as vividly demonstrated here the minority peoples many spanning more than one country have adapted and accommodated to or actively resisted majority culture and state policy alike There continues to be undeniable impoverishment cultural loss and social suffering in some communities particularly among ex swidden based upland groups in Vietnam and Laos the rearranging or reconstituting of trading and social networks the over commodification of aspects of culture often for domestic tourism and struggles to maintain language rituals and belief systems The studies here bring alive these communities in transformation pointing out those in near dissolution such as some Akha villages in Laos affected by overzealous opium eradication programs as well as those reclaiming and expanding their cultural space such as the Dai in SipSongpanna Xishuangbanna engaged in a cross border revival of Theravada Buddhism and Dai culture This is essential reading for anyone who wishes to uncover the nuances and interplay of ethnicity nationalism and change in the Mekong region and serves as a companion volume to Living in a Globalized World Ethnic Minorities in the Greater Mekong Subregion

Resources in Education, 1992-08 Red Stamps and Gold Stars Sarah Turner, 2013-05-15 In the late 1970s and 80s socialist countries in Asia began reopening their borders to overseas scholars Today a growing number of social scientists are embarking on fieldwork in China Vietnam and Laos Red Stamps and Gold Stars brings together all the messiness compromise and ethical dilemmas that underscore fieldwork in upland socialist Asia and elsewhere in the Global South The volume's contributors accomplished geographers anthropologists and ethnohistorians foreground the importance of questioning one's subjective gaze and of debating representations of the other. Reflecting on the realities of fieldwork in socialist regimes and analyzing their positionality and subjectivity in the field, they debate a range of ethical quandaries and the rewards that can be gained from critical reflection. Together, these unique contributions will advance the study of the practice of international fieldwork.

The Landscape of Global Health Inequity Barbara W. K. Son, 2024-07-10 This book presents a unique overview of significant disparities in health which exist within complex and multifaceted contexts across different regions. In the twenty-first century, global health inequity presents substantial health challenges encompassing diverse and interconnected ramifications across socioeconomic, cultural, and political dimensions. Additionally, it thoroughly explores the interconnected and multifaceted underlying factors that are widespread in developing nations. The book puts forth essential and comprehensive recommendations that call for collaborative efforts at multiple levels, including global, national, and local, to identify and address issues effectively.

Indigenous Peoples, Poverty, and Development Gillette H. Hall, Harry Anthony Patrinos, 2012-04-30 This book documents poverty systematically for the world's indigenous peoples in developing regions in Asia, Africa, and Latin America. The volume compiles results for roughly 85 percent of the world's indigenous peoples. It draws on nationally representative data to compare trends in countries' poverty rates and other social indicators with those for indigenous sub-populations and provides comparable data for a wide range of countries all over the world. It estimates global poverty numbers and analyzes other important development indicators such as schooling, health, and social protection. Provocatively, the results show a marked difference in results across regions, with rapid poverty reduction among indigenous and non-indigenous populations in Asia, contrasting with relative stagnation and, in some cases, falling back in Latin America and Africa.

Memories of Burmese Rohingya Refugees Kazi Fahmida Farzana, 2017-08-24 This book provides a critical analysis of the Rohingya refugees' identity building processes and how this is closely linked to the state building process of Myanmar, as well as issues of marginalization, statelessness, forced migration, exile life, and resistance of an ethnic minority. With a focus on the ethnic minority's life at the Myanmar-Bangladesh border, the author demonstrates how the state itself is involved in the construction of identity, which it manipulates for its own political purposes. The study is based on original research largely drawn from fieldwork data. It presents an alternative and endogenous interpretation of the problem in contrast to the exogenous narrative espoused by state institutions, non-governmental organizations, and the media.
