Grooming, Etiquette & Manners for Teens, Young Adults & Future Leaders Gerard Assey,2022-12-04 Think for a moment how would you feel if someone Never says Please or Thank You when you help them Or Takes or Shares your things but never shares anything of theirs with you Snatches the remote while you are watching TV Makes a loud noise while eating Belching loud Or pushes ahead of you in a queue Who you are shows in how you behave and also in how you appear to others How you look talk walk sit stand and even how you feel in a word the sum of how you present yourself will always speak volumes about who you are Good manners cost us nothing but will help us win almost everything Good manners put others before you the skills of respecting others and making people feel easy and comfortable If you show good manners everywhere you go then you are more likely to encourage others to behave in the same way towards you In today s increasingly global arena technical knowledge alone is not enough to ensure success Sophistication is more and more the catchword Given a choice between two equally talented individuals corporations will choose the candidate with greater interpersonal and social grace skills to represent it As our world becomes a smaller place and our economy becomes increasingly global in scope it is becoming increasingly clear how important good manners are in all cultures In fact knowing how to treat others well is more important now than ever How we look talk walk sit stand eat ie how we present ourselves creates the first impression that others form of us This is true not only in personal life but more so in our professional life With a world that s becoming more and more competitive proper business etiquette and interpersonal skills play an increasingly important role in the success or failure of anyone s business career and the company they represent Knowing how to behave courteously and professionally is far from trivial Etiquette and protocol does count in the business world as no matter how brilliant an employee may be his or her lack of social grace can make a bad first impression
