Flight Of The Rosellas English Edition:

Austral English Edward Ellis Morris, 1898 Rosella Mary Charlton, 1799 Rosella, or Modern Occurrences Natalie Neill, 2023-06-21 Mary Charlton's 1799 Rosella or Modern Occurrences is a fascinating novel that brokers between conservative and feminist ideas, humour and horror, and indulgence in and ridicule of sentimental tropes. Written in imitation of Cervantes's Don Quixote 1615 and Lennox's The Female Quixote 1752, Rosella belongs to a large class of comic works in which female readers and novelists are satirized. This edition not only addresses the gap in knowledge about Charlton's work but will be of particular interest to scholars working on the Romantic literary market of the 1790s, especially Minerva Press publications. The book engages with many of the themes explored in eighteenth-century and Romantic literature from women's writing and female education to popular fiction and sensibility. Accompanied by a new introduction by Professor Natalie Neill, this title will be of great interest to students and scholars of literary history.

The Roller Canary Journal and Bird World, 1928 The Flying Vet Ameliah Scott, 2023-06-01 My journey to the skies and the people and animals of the Australian outback. Scott is devoted to bringing veterinarian services to the vast outback plains she calls home with her heart of gold, nerves of steel, red dirt soles, and two silver wings. Australian Women's Weekly Inspiring and captivating. Lots of fun and immense joy. Goodreads review: The inspiring story of the intrepid Dr Ameliah Scott, the Flying Vet extraordinaire. Ameliah isn't your average vet flying solo over a staggering territory of 200,000 square kilometres of red dirt and bush to tend to animals of all shapes and sizes; she's a rare combination of female flying vet and fifth-generation farmer in remote Australia. She brings much-needed solace, care, and reassurance to remote farming communities in the heart of the country while also raising her own young family. With charm, honesty, and wit, Ameliah tells stories from a life on the road and the skies, from attending the School of the Air and becoming a vet to operating her mobile service in some of the most remote parts of the country. Her story spreads as far as her clients are scattered across the outback, from far western New South Wales to northern Victoria, from the southwest of Queensland to eastern South Australia, treating valuable stock animals and beloved pets and providing a precious lifeline for their owners. Funny, moving, and uplifting, Ameliah tells us about the diverse community she serves and the animals she treats and celebrates the bush and the people of the outback and Ameliah's passion for animal welfare. From treating animals in distress, wrangling hot-blooded goats to gelding biting horses and treating pregnant and calving cattle, Ameliah also battles the changing conditions of the bush and the scourge of feral animals and plagues all while navigating vast distances from the air and raising her own young family on her own 120,000-acre cattle and sheep farm. Humour, hope, and healing from the heart of Australia.
