This fascinating book relates all the excitement, mystery, danger and adventure of living and traveling in Siberia. It all started back in 1991 when I received an invitation via the Gorbachev government in conjunction with a mining company working with the Soviet Union to visit, write about, photograph and film what the country had to offer American tourists and hunters. This was the era of Glasnost and Perestroika. Gorbachev wanted to bring in American tourists to bolster the sagging economy. That first expedition led to 22 years traveling back and forth to the former Soviet Union, now Russia, where I hung out with the KGB, met numerous dignitaries and lived in tents and trappers' cabins in Siberia with the local natives. We were attacked by bears, wild boars and moose. Among those traveling with me were Apollo Astronaut Jim McDivitt who was stalked by a Russian bear and a four-star air force general Earl O. Loughlin who used to fly spy plane missions over the former Soviet Union. This made for a very interesting confrontation with the KGB. During my time in Siberia, I got to know many of the native people who relayed numerous sad and harrowing stories of encounters with giant bears. The book is jam-packed with historical perspective of what was happening at this time in Russia, including how the people lived, worked, survived and what they thought of Americans. While framed by hunting, this book is as much about the people and the culture of Siberia. About the Author: Now retired, Michigan native Denny Geurink was previously a teacher and the Midwest editor for Field Stream magazine. He wrote a weekly newspaper outdoor column for nearly forty years. Publisher's website: <http://sbprabooks.com> Denny Geurink Chennai & Tamil Nadu Footprint Focus
