South African Schooling: The Enigma of Inequality Nic Spaull, Jonathan D. Jansen, 2019-11-05 This volume brings together many of South Africa's leading scholars of education and covers the full range of South African schooling from financing and policy reform to in depth discussions of literacy numeracy teacher development and curriculum change The book moves beyond a historical analysis and provides an inside view of the questions South African scholars are now grappling with Are there different and preferential equilibria we have not yet thought of or explored and if so what are they In practical terms how does one get to a more equitable distribution of teachers resources and learning outcomes While decidedly local these questions resonate throughout the developing world South Africa today is the most unequal country in the world The richest 10% of South Africans lay claim to 65% of national income and 90% of national wealth This is the largest 90/10 gap in the world and one that is reflected in the schooling system Two decades after apartheid it is still the case that the life chances of most South African children are determined not by their ability or the result of hard work and determination but instead by the colour of their skin the province of their birth and the wealth of their parents Looking back on almost three decades of democracy in South Africa it is this stubbornness of inequality and its patterns of persistence that demands explanation justification and analysis This is a landmark book on basic education in South Africa an essential volume for those interested in learning outcomes and their inequality in South Africa The various chapters present conceptually and empirically sophisticated analyses of learning outcomes across divisions of race class and place The book brings together the wealth of decades of research output from top quality researchers to explore what has improved what has not and why Prof Lant Pritchett Harvard University There is much wisdom in this collection from many of the best education analysts in South Africa No surprise that they conclude that without a large and sustained expansion in well trained teachers early childhood education and adequate school resources South Africa will continue to sacrifice its people's future to maintaining the privileges of the few Prof Martin Carnoy Stanford

Albert Rorabacher,2016-09-13 For the first century and a half of its nearly 275 year existence the English East India Company remained ostensibly a mercantile enterprise satisfied to simply trade and to compete with other European traders In the middle of the eighteenth century as a response to French expansion in India the East India Company redefined itself becoming an active participant in India s game of thrones This book charts that transition Please note Taylor Francis does not sell or distribute the Hardback in India Pakistan Nepal Bhutan Bangladesh and Sri Lanka Contemporary Voices From The Margin Peter Ukpokodu,Omiunota N. Togetherness in South Africa J.M. Vorster, Nico Vorster, Jan A. du Rand, Riaan Rheeder, Dirk van der Merwe, Theuns Eloff, Ferdi P. Kruger, Reginald W. Nel, 2017-11-24 Race and inequality have always been sensitive topics in South African society due to its colonial past diverse social composition and apartheid legacy of legal discrimination against people on the basis of their skin colour Racial tensions seem to be escalating in South African society and disturbing racialised rhetoric and slogans are re entering the political and social landscape Another disturbing phenomenon has been violent incidents of xenophobia against African immigrants The question probed by this book is What perspectives can theology offer in addressing the roots of racism inequality and xenophobia in South Africa and how can it and the church contribute to reconciliation and a sense of togetherness among South African citizens Various methodologies and approaches are used to address this question In chapter 1 Theuns Eloff employs a historical and socio analytical approach to describe the social context that has given rise and is still giving impetus to racism and other forms of intolerance in South African society Nico Vorster approaches the issue of distorted racial identity constructions from a theological anthropological perspective Utilising various empirical studies he attempts to provide conceptual clarity to the concepts of racism nationalism ethnocentrism and xenophobia and maps the various racisms that we find in South Africa His contribution concludes with a theological anthropological discussion on ways in which theology can deconstruct distorted identities and contribute to the development of authentic identities Koos Vorster provides a theological ethical perspective on social stratification in South Africa He identifies the patterns inherent to the institutionalisation of racist social structures and argues that many of these patterns are still present albeit in a new disguise in the South African social order Jan du Rand provides in chapter 4 a semantic discussion of the notions of race and xenophobia He argues that racist ideologies are not constructed on a factual basis but that racial ideologies use semantic notions to construct social myths that enable them to attain power and justify the exploitation and oppression of the other Du Rand s second contribution in chapter 5 provides Reformed exegetical and hermeneutic perspectives on various passages and themes in the Bible that relate to anthropology xenophobia and the imperative to xenophilia love of the stranger Dirk Van der Merwe s contribution analyses evaluates and compares both contemporary literature and ancient texts of the Bible to develop a model that can enable churches to promote reconciliation in society while Ferdi Kruger investigates the various ways in which language can be used as a tool to disseminate hate speech He offers an analytical description of hate language provides normative perspectives on the duty to counter hate speech through truth speaking and phronesis wisdom and concludes with practical theological perspectives that might enable us to address problematic praxis Reggie Nel explores the Confessions of Belhar and the Declaration of Accra as theological lenses to provide markers for public witness in a postcolonial South African setting The volume concludes with Riaan Rheeder s Christian bioethical perspective on inequality in the health sector of sub Sahara Africa This book contains original research No part was plagiarised or published elsewhere The target audience are theologians ministers and the Christian community but social activists social scientists politicians political theorists sociologists and psychologists might also find the book applicable to their fields New Leaders, New Dawns? Chris Brown, David Moore, Blair

Rutherford, 2022-06-17 In late 2017 and early 2018 South Africa and Zimbabwe both experienced rapid and unexpected political transitions In Zimbabwe Robert Mugabe the only leader the country had ever known was replaced in a soft coup by his erstwhile vice president Emmerson Mnangagwa Over a twelve day period in February 2018 South African president Jacob Zuma was prematurely forced from office by his former deputy president Cyril Ramaphosa The widespread popular rejoicing that accompanied their arrival compounded the shock of these sudden transitions New Leaders New Dawns explores these political transitions and the way they were received Contributors consider how the former liberation heroes Mugabe and Zuma could have fallen so low the underlying reasons for their ouster what happened to their liberation movements turned ruling parties and perhaps most importantly what the rise to power of Ramaphosa and Mnangagwa foreshadowed Bringing together fourteen leading international scholars of southern Africa and adopting a political economy framework this volume argues that the changes in leadership are welcome but insufficient While the time had come for Zuma and Mugabe to go there is little in the personal histories or early policy actions of Ramaphosa and Mnangagwa that suggests they will be capable of addressing the profound social economic and political problems both countries face New Leaders New Dawns reveals that despite what these new leaders may have promised a new dawn has not yet arrived in southern Africa

Cross-cultural Behaviour in Tourism Yvette Reisinger, Lindsay W. Turner, 2003 Reisinger and Turner illustrate the importance of cultural background in the tourist experience in this in depth study The authors cover the concepts definitions and measures of these cultural components and the tools used to analyse them
