Pastry And Bakery Cook Book Wolf Gang Books, Few things in life are inviting as the smell of a fresh baked cake, bread, or pie coming out of the oven, and what could be more satisfying than serving up a culinary masterpiece that you have created yourself. Pies and tarts take on many incarnations; they can contain sweet or savory fillings, have a top crust, or be open-faced; they may be served à la mode or handheld. In some cases, they can be quickly assembled, while in others, they are results of several stages of baking and preparation. In either case, nothing is well appreciated as a home-baked pastry. The original bakery and pastry dates back to ancient Egypt, when ingredients such as nuts and honey were wrapped in a pastry-like confection.
