Model	Art Specific Example
General	Mr. Smith teaches 4 sections of 6th grade art and 2 sections of 7th grade art. He chooses to focus on his 6th grade students. He tracks 3 main concepts throughout the duration of his nine-week course. In this way, he assesses all of his students on the majority of the concepts he teaches.

He sets a student growth goal related to these skills for these students only. Throughout the nine-week course, he tracks only these students in this specific skill set.

Redefining Liberal Arts Education in the Twenty First Century delves into the essential nature of the liberal arts in America today During a time when the STEM fields of science technology engineering and math dominate the narrative around the future of higher education the liberal arts remain vital but frequently dismissed academic pursuits While STEAM has emerged as a popular acronym the arts get added to the discussion in a way that is often rhetorical at best Written by scholars from a diversity of fields and institutions the essays in this collection legitimize the liberal arts and offer visions for the role of these disciplines in the modern world From the arts pedagogy and writing to social justice the digital humanities and the African American experience the essays that comprise Redefining Liberal Arts Education in the Twenty First Century bring attention to the vast array of ways in which the liberal arts continue to be fundamental parts of any education In an increasingly transactional environment in which students believe a degree must lead to a specific job and set income colleges and universities should take heed of the advice from these scholars The liberal arts do not lend themselves to the capacity to do a single job but to do any job The effective teaching of critical and analytical thinking writing and speaking creates educated citizens In a divisive twenty first century world such a citizenry holds the tools to maintain a free society redefining the liberal arts in a manner that may be key to the American republic
