House on Fire (Valancourt 20th Century Classics) Arch Oboler, 2015-01-27 It starts out innocently enough when reporters Tony Dumont and Robin Shepherd are sent to interview teenager Mark Elias a scientific genius about a scholarship he has won But it is quickly clear that there is something very strange about the Elias family Mark and his sister Shirley spend long hours behind closed doors conducting weird and inscrutable experiments involving electricity and a tape recorder And then there is old Mrs Elias the children s grandmother who died recently and whom the family seems terrified to discuss The two journalists believe there may be a more serious news story than the one they were sent to cover but they have no idea how serious until people begin to die

Wild Things Jack Halberstam, 2020-10-02 In Wild Things Jack Halberstam offers an alternative history of sexuality by tracing the ways in which wildness has been associated with queerness and queer bodies throughout the twentieth century Halberstam theorizes the wild as an unbounded and unpredictable space that offers sources of opposition to modernity s orderly impulses Wildness illuminates the normative taxonomies of sexuality against which radical queer practice and politics operate Throughout Halberstam engages with a wide variety of texts practices and cultural imaginaries from zombies falconry and M NourbeSe Philip s Zong to Maurice Sendak s Where the Wild Things Are and the career of Irish anticolonial revolutionary Roger Casement to demonstrate how wildness provides the means to know and to be in ways that transgress Euro American notions of the modern liberal subject With Wild Things Halberstam opens new possibilities for queer theory and for wild thinking more broadly
