Maverick Tv Milestones Series English Edition:

Maverick Dennis Broe, 2015-08-15 Demonstrates how Maverick The Legend of the West fractured altered or undermined nearly every Western code and myth Airing on ABC from 1957 to 1962 Maverick appeared at a key moment in television Western history and provided a distinct alternative to the genre's usual moralistic lawmen in its hero Bret Maverick A non-violent gambler and part-time con man Maverick's principles revolved around pleasure and not power and he added humor satire and irony to the usually grim-faced Western In this study of Maverick author Dennis Broe details how the popular series mocked altered and undermined the characteristics of other popular Westerns like Gunsmoke and Bonanza Broe highlights the contributions made by its creators its producer Roy Huggins and its lead actor James Garner to a format that was described as the American fairy tale Broe describes how Garner and Huggins struck blows against a feudal studio system that was on its last legs in cinema but was being applied even more rigidly in television He considers Maverick as a place where multiple counter-cultural discourses converged including Baudelaire's Flaneur Guy DeBord's Situationists and Jack Kerouac's Beats in a form that was acceptable to American households Finally Broe shows how the series validation of Maverick's outside-the-law status punctured the Cold War rhetoric promoted by the adult Western Broe also highlights the series female con-women or flaneuses who were every bit the equal of their male counterparts and added additional layers to the traditional schoolteacher-showgirl Western dichotomy Broe demonstrates the progressive nature of Maverick as it worked to counter the traditional studio mode of production served as a locus of counter-cultural trends and would ultimately become the lone outpost of anti-Cold War and anti-establishment sentiments within the Western genre Maverick fans and scholars of American television history will enjoy this close look at the classic series TV Guide, 1992 Catalog of Copyright Entries, Third Series, 1959 Air Force Magazine, 1984 Department of Defense Authorization for Appropriations for Fiscal Year 1979 United States. Department of Defense appropriations for fiscal year 1979 United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Appropriations. Subcommittee on Department of Defense, 1978 Play It Again, Sam Andrew Horton, Stuart Y. McDougal, 2024-03-29 This title was originally published in 1998 Play It Again Sam is a timely investigation of a topic that until now has received almost no critical attention in film and cultural studies the cinematic remake As cinema enters its second century more remakes are appearing than ever before and these writers consider the full range of Hollywood films that have been recycled by Hollywood such as The Jazz Singer Cape Fear and Robin Hood foreign films including Breathless and Three Men and a Cradle which Hollywood has reworked for American audiences and foreign films based on American works among them Yugoslav director Emir Kusturica's Time of the Gypsies which is a makeover of Coppola's Godfather films As these essays demonstrate films are remade by other films Alfred Hitchcock went so far as to remake his own The Man Who Knew Too Much and by other media as well The editors and contributors draw upon narrative film and cultural theories and consider gender genre and psychological issues presenting the remake as a special artistic form of repetition with a difference and as a commercial product aimed at profits in the marketplace The remake flourishes at the crossroads of the old and the new the known and the unknown Play It Again Sam takes the reader on an eye opening tour of this hitherto unexplored territory This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1998

Who Shot the Sheriff? J. Fred MacDonald, 1987. This intriguing book is a study of the rise and fall of an American genre of entertainment and communication whose symbols and rhetoric helped define American society for decades. Flourishing in the 1950s and 1960s, the television Western has deteriorated to the point where it is now irrelevant and meaningless. Tracing the evolution of the Western from the late 1940s to the 1980s, the author ties the genre to the political innocence and confidence of the Cold War years and suggests that the social reevaluations that began in the 1960s undermined the believability of Westerns and their entertainment value. Seeking to understand the demise of the TV Western, the book offers an analysis of the interrelationships between popular culture, television, and sociopolitical development in the United States during the past four decades.

The History of Television, 1942 to 2000
Albert Abramson, 2007-09-15. Albert Abramson published with McFarland in 1987 a landmark volume titled The History of Television, 1880-1941, a massive research library journal voluminous documentation. Choice many striking old photos. The TV Collector. At last he has produced the follow-up volume, the reader may be assured there is no other book in any language that is remotely comparable to it. Together these two volumes provide the definitive technical history of the medium. Upon the development in the mid 1940s of new cameras and picture tubes that made commercial television possible worldwide, the medium rose rapidly to prominence. Perhaps even more important was the invention of the video tape recorder in 1956, allowing editing, re-shooting, and rebroadcasting. This second volume, 1942 to 2000, covers these significant developments and much more. Chapters are devoted to television during World War II and the postwar era, the development of color television, Ampex Corporation's contributions, television in Europe, the change from helical to high band technology, solid state cameras, the television coverage of Apollo II, the rise of electronic journalism, television entering the studios, the introduction of the camcorder, the demise of RCA at the hands of GE, the domination of Sony and Matsushita, and the future of television in cinema and the 1080 P24 format. The book is heavily illustrated as is the first volume.
